	Williams,	Little,	Moffit,

So it was determined in the negative.

On motion, the question was put, That leave be given to bring in a bill, entitled, An act relating to the high court of chancery, and the equity jurisdiction of the several county courts of this state? Resolved in the affirmative.

The house proceeded to ballot for a committee to prepare and bring in the same; the ballots being deposited in the ballot box, the gentlemen named to strike retired, and after sometime returned and reported, that Mr. Watts, Mr. Frisby, Mr. Chapman, Mr. Kerr, Mr. Shaaff, Mr. Little and Mr. Briscoe, were elected.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill for the benefit of William, Mary, Elizabeth, Levin and Britanna Murphy, of Dorchester county, endorsed "will not pass." And the bill authorising John Evans, James Cockran and Joseph Phillips, securities of Samuel Cowdon, late sheriff of Cæcil county, to complete the collections of said sheriff, endorsed, "on reconsideration will pass with the proposed amendments;" which amendments were read the first and second time, agreed to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Thomas Reynolds, a delegate returned for Calvert county, appeared, and after qualifying in the mode prescribed by the constitution and form of government, and taking an oath to support the constitution of the United States, took his seat in the house.

The house adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

S A T U R D A Y, November 29, 1806.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. Street appears in the house. Mr. Upton Bruce, a delegate returned for Allegany county, appeared, and after qualifying in the mode prescribed by the constitution and form of government, and taking an oath to support the constitution of the United States, took his seat in the house.

Mr. Chapman, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee of elections and privileges report, that they have examined and inspected the return of the judges of election for Calvert county, on an election held by the said judges in virtue of a warrant from the honourable Speaker of the house of delegates, for the purpose of electing a fourth delegate to represent Calvert county in this general assembly, and find from said return that Thomas Reynolds, Esquire, is duly elected and returned a delegate for said county. All which is submitted.

By order,

Which was read the first and second time by especial order and concurred with.

A petition from Nicholas Leaman, of Frederick county, stating, that a deed from Andrew Weigert was executed to Jacob Leaman, by mistake, instead of the petitioner, and praying that the clerk of Frederick county court may be authorised to correct the same, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Biggs, Mr. Waters and Mr. Kuhn, to consider and report thereon.

On motion, ORDERED, That the committee of claims allow to Thomas Reynolds, Esquire, a member of this house, for his attendance in the city of Annapolis, commencing on Monday the 24th instant.

Mr. Emerson, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of George Washington Sykes; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion, the question was put, That leave be given to bring in a bill, entitled, An act to tax bachelors and bank stock for the education of poor children in the several counties in this state? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
