

(No. 8.)

Council Chamber, Annapolis, June 23d, 1808.

Gentlemen,

I AM directed by the governor and council to request that you will inform them, through me, whether you valued the work done by Mr. William Tuck in the house of delegates room at the Baltimore rates.

I am, respectfully, your ob't. Servt.

NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

Messrs. Wm. Camp and Walter Crook.

(A true Copy. S. Lowdermilk, clk.)

Baltimore, June 29th, 1808.

Ninian Pinkney, Esquire, Sir,

YOUR favour of the 23d inst. has been duly received and its contents fully considered. Our answer, Sir, to the material part of your letter is, that we were no wise influenced by either the Baltimore or Annapolis rates, as relates to the work performed by the Messrs. Tucks in the delegates room. To give you a just idea of our procedure in the trust reposed in us, we submit the following method as the ground of our determination.... In the first instance we proceeded to the measurement of the work, after which we ascertained the quantity as well as the quality of the work, materials, with their costs; then adjusted the journeymens bill, and added the amount up, and allowed thereon a certain per centum adequate to the labour performed, (and as we conceived,) a reasonable indemnification to the undertakers for the difference of situation between Annapolis and this city, and the inconveniencies naturally attending the prosecution of such work. We wish, Sir, to be clearly understood as far as relates to all the work done as specified in the bill rendered, (excepting the carpenter's work, for which a bill has been received from the Mess. Tucks, valued by a person residing in Annapolis, which does appear on the face of our bill.) we believe to be well executed, reasonable, and worthy of commendation.

We are, Sir, with sentiments of the highest esteem, respectfully, Your ob't. H'ble Servts.

(Signed)

WILLIAM CAMP,
WALTER CROOK.
