So it was determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. M'Mahon, the following amendment, offered by him as an additional section, to come in at the end of the bill, was twice read and agreed to, viz.

“And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall extend to or have operation within the city of Baltimore, or in anywise affect the jurisdiction of justices of the peace within the same.”

On motion by Mr. Hughes of Montgomery, the following amendment, offered by him in lieu of the last section of the bill, which is stricken out as above, was twice read, and agreed to, viz.

“And be it enacted, That all acts, or parts of acts, that may conflict with or be inconsistent with the provisions of this act, or any of them, be and the same are hereby repealed and made void.”

The bill having been read through, the question was pro-
