On motion by Mr. Turner, the house proceeded to consider the bill, reported by him, entitled, An act to regulate the guaging of casks, and the inspection of domestic distilled liquors in this state, which had been made the order of the day for Wednesday last, the fifth instant. And in the progress of the second reading thereof,

On motion by Mr. Turner, the tenth section of said bill was amended, by inserting at the end thereof, the following words: "and fine him one hundred dollars, for the use of the state, for each and every such offence." And the 12th section of said bill was amended, by inserting at the end thereof, the words, "for in any court of record as the case may be."
