The clerk of the senate delivered the following messages, accompanied by the resolution referred to in the one last entered:

By the Senate, January 8th, 1829.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message informing the senate that your honourable body have appointed a committee to act in conjunction with such gentlemen as may be named by the senate as a committee of both houses for the purpose of comparing and examining the engrossed bills. In accordance therewith, the senate have appointed Messrs. Whitely, Sewell, Thomas, Spence and Kennedy, as a committee on their part for the object expressed in your message.

By order,

Louis Gassaway, Clerk.

By the Senate, January 8, 1829.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The senate having discovered a slight error in the calculation of the accounts accompanying the resolution authorising the treasurer of the western shore to pay to Joseph Kent, Esquire,
