

severally read and assented to by this house, and with the said originals, were then returned by the clerk, to the senate.

The clerk of the senate also returned the bills of this house, of the following titles:

An act to divorce Sarah Sandman, and her husband Jacob Sandman, of Washington county.

A supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the relief of the poor of Queen-Anne's county.

And, an act to provide for the execution of certain trusts; severally endorsed 'will pass.'

Ordered, That the said bills, respectively, be engrossed.

Also an act authorising the court of appeals for the western shore to reinstate certain cases therein mentioned

And, an act authorising the purchase of stationary for the use of the legislature, and for other purposes, therein mentioned; severally endorsed will not pass.

And delivered the following message; which was read, viz.

By the Senate, March 12, 1829.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The senate accede to the proposition contained in your message, for the adjournment of the general assembly on Saturday at 10 o'clock; and also accede to your proposition to invite the governor to attend this evening in the senate chamber to sign such of the engrossed bills as are prepared for his signature; and have appointed Messrs. Heath and Forrest, to join the committee appointed by your honourable body.

By order,

Louis Gassaway, Clk.

Messrs. Townsend and Hawkins, of the joint committee appointed on the part of this house, to wait on his excellency the governor, and to invite his attendance in the senate chamber, at the hour of seven o'clock, this evening, for the purpose of signing and sealing such of the engrossed bills of both branches of the legislature, as may be prepared for that procedure, reported, that the said committee had discharged the duty assigned them; and that the governor had returned for answer, 'that he would accordingly attend in the senate chamber at the time appointed, for the purpose above mentioned.'

On motion by Mr. Yoe, the bill reported by Mr. Wright, of Dorchester, from the committee on divorces, entitled, An act for the relief of Mary Beckley, of Washington county, was taken up for consideration, and read the second time. When, after some discussion thereon,