By the Senate,

March 22d, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We beg leave to inform you that the Resolution from your honorable body, in favour of James Frazer, of the city of Annapolis, was referred to the committee on Revolutionary Claims, which committee, on the 12th of March instant, reported unfavourably thereon; the Resolution and Report was ordered to lie on the table. The report of the committee this day, has been concurred in, and the resolution consequently rejected. But after examination by the Clerk, it is ascertained that the resolution is mislaid, and cannot be found, so as to be returned to your honorable body. We have adopted this mode of apprizing you of
