

legates to the General Assembly, and to proportion said delegation, so that no county or city in this State, shall have less than three delegates nor more than four.

On the question being put, will the House grant the leave;

It was determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Ely,

Ordered, that the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, be instructed to enquire into the expediency of placing on the pension rolls of this State, Clemency Parish, widow of Edward Parish, deceased, late of Baltimore county, a soldier of the revolution.

Mr. Dennis, from the committee on internal improvement, delivered the following report;

The committee on internal improvement, to whom was referred the memorial of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, praying an additional appropriation, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to refer it to the joint committee already raised on that subject.

JOHN DENNIS.

Which was read the first, and by special order a second time, and concurred in.

Mr. McLean, from the committee on internal improvements, delivered the following report,

The committee on internal improvements, to whom was referred the memorial of sundry citizens of Washington county, praying for additional pecuniary aid to the Baltimore and Ohio rail road company, have had the same under consideration, but as the said company has made no application for any such aid as that mentioned in the memorial—they beg leave to report, that the request contained in the memorial ought not to be granted.

All which is respectfully submitted,

C. McLEAN.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, and concurred in.

Mr. Pratt, chairman of the committee on internal improvement, to which was referred the bill from the senate, entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act to incorporate the Commercial Exchange company of Baltimore, reported the same without amendment,

The said bill was then read the first, and by special order a second time, and passed,

Mr. Berry, chairman of the select committee, submitted the following preamble and resolution,
