

adopted ib. communication from the Mayor of Baltimore, enclosing resolutions of the City Council declining the invitation to be heard in answer to the allegation of the memorialists 437; preamble and resolutions from the City Council of Baltimore, asking further time to produce testimony, &c. 438; order directing the committee to have such testimony summoned, and for the postponement of the day for hearing council, proposed 438; amendment proposed to the order ib., negatived 439; other amendment proposed and negatived 439; substitute proposed for the order and adopted 440; memorial counter to the prayer of the memorialists, presented 441; message acquainting the senate that counsel would be heard at the bar, and inviting their attendance 443; message received in reply 444; deputation appointed to invite them in ib. who report 445; the senate attend ib. memorial considered ib. communication from J. Nelson and A. Constable, Esq. counsel of the city of Baltimore in the case, declining under such circumstances, to appear 445-6-7; order proposing to defer hearing council on the part of the city, &c. proposed and adopted 447; motion to reconsider that order, negatived ib. order to defer hearing counsel on the part of the memorialists, adopted ; senate retire ib. resolutions of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, relative to the, claimed, &c. presented 450; the report of the joint committee recommitted 455; the committee report again 513; Mr. Ely's dissent noted 514; consideration of the report 517; a deputation apprise the senate that the house are about to hear counsel at the bar on the subject and invite their attendance, who attend accordingly—R. B. Taney being appointed chief Judge of the U. S. Supreme court, declines appearing, and J. V. L. McMahon, addresses the house, 518; order proposing a recess and to resume the consideration at 4 o'clock P. M. * 522; consideration of, report, &c. resumed 522; deputation invite the attendance of the senate, and report ; the senate attend—J. V. L. McMahon concludes his argument 523; consideration of the subject resumed—deputation invite the senate, who attend, and John Nelson, Esq. addresses the house in opposition to the report 528; order adopted to hear Reverdy Johnson, &c. 534;