So the house refused to adopt the amendment.

Mr. McLean then moved to amend said bill by inserting in the first section, twelfth line, after the word 'Canal,' the following,

'Provided that no covenant, agreement, or stipulation made by the said Company, shall have any force or validity until the same shall be assented to by the Governor and Council of Maryland, who shall also approve of the plan of the said Canal, before the same shall be constructed.'

Determined in the negative.

Mr. McLean then moved to amend said section by adding at the end thereof, the following,

'And that the State of Maryland shall have the right to controul or alter the provisions of this section at pleasure, whenever the public interest shall in the judgment of the Legislature seem to require it.'

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Mr Nowland, the yeas and nays were ordered, and appeared as follows:—

AFFIRMATIVE.
