This Convention being informed that a Brig of Christopher Landis of Prince Georges County, lately cleared out from this Province for Barbadoes, was seized and carried into Boston by some Officers or Officers of His Majesty's Ships of War, stationed there, and considering it as a matter of the last importance, that the truth of this fact be enquired into and known; Do recommend it to the General Committee of Observation for Prince Georges County, immediately to call before them all witnesses who may have any knowledge of the said Junks actions.
