

the inhabitants of such county, for and during the term of six months from the day of the receipt thereof into his said office; and the said clerk shall, within five days after the expiration of the said six months, under the penalty of one hundred pounds current money, enclose and deliver the said certificates, books, proceedings and accounts, to the sheriff of such respective county, safely enclosed, and endorsed for the public service, directed to the clerk of the house of delegates, to be by the said sheriff forwarded as public letters, and under the like penalty; and the said clerk shall safely keep the said certificates, books, proceedings and accounts, in his office, until the next meeting of the assembly, and shall, on the second day thereof, lay them before the house of delegates, for the inspection of the members thereof.

And be it enacted, That if any of the days appointed by this act for performance of any of the duties thereby required shall happen to be on a Sunday, then such duties shall be performed on the day following, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it enacted, That the collector of each respective county shall, at the time of settlement of his accounts as aforesaid, pay to each of the said commissioners who shall serve in the execution of this act, as a salary for the full and faithful performance of their duty therein, seven pounds ten shillings for each day they shall necessarily attend in the performance of the several services required of them by this act, and shall also pay to the said commissioners, for the use of their clerk, seven pounds ten shilling per day for every day he shall be necessarily employed in the performance of his duty, and for the use of the said assessors, for the full and faithful performance of their