

duty under this act, any sum not under fifty pounds nor exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds current money, for each assessor, which the said commissioners shall adjudge an adequate reward for the service of each assessor. And the amount of all the sums so paid shall, by the said commissioners, be allowed to the said collector on settlement of his account as aforesaid, in which account shall be expressed the name of the clerk, and the names of the assessors for each hundred, and the sum of money to them respectively allowed. And the said commissioners shall, after receipt of the said sums for the use of their clerk and of the said assessors, pay the same to them, or their orders respectively, on demand, under the penalty of one hundred and fifty pounds current money to the party grieved.

And be it enacted, That every commissioner and assessor who shall take upon himself the execution of this act, shall, for and during the time he shall continue to act as commissioner or assessor, be entirely exempt and free from all military duty.

And be it enacted, That if any commissioner by this act appointed shall refuse to serve, not having a lawful excuse in the opinion and judgment of the county court of his county, such commissioner for every such refusal shall forfeit the sum of five hundred pounds current money.

And be it enacted, That if any two of the persons appointed commissioners for any of the counties aforesaid should die, refuse, or be otherwise rendered incapable to discharge the duties enjoined by this act, that a majority of the three remaining commissioners may nominate and appoint some other in the place of the person who shall die, refuse, or be incapable to act, and if any three or more of the said commissioners should