NOMINATED BY THE PEOPLE

CANDIDATES WEAR THE YOKE OF NO MAN

Outcome Of The Primaries Held Under The Crawford County System Last Saturday. The Ticket.

With every thrashing rig in the county from Kent Point to the Delaware line running, and with ideal weather for thrashing wheat on Thursday last, thereby preventing hundreds of Democrats throughout the county from reaching the polls—fully 1000 of them participated in the Primary Elections held throughout the county. Such a manifestation of interest on the part of the people was scarcely ever known before in the history of Queen Anne county, and that the Crawford County System was responsible in a large measure for this great interest is a generally accepted fact.

The voters felt that it was their opportunity to name the nominees of the great Democratic Party, and with this end in view they went to the polls pledged to any set of men or set of candidates, but with the determination to vote their own minds, and for what they believed to be the best interests of the party. The consequence was that Centreville district—which is the largest in the county and which had the greatest number of aspirants—received the bulk of the honors. This is as the people determined by their votes, and not as the politicians and leaders of the party manipulated it. For, rest assured, no leader, or set of leaders, would so manipulate a ticket as to throw nearly all of the best offices in one district. From the beginning of the fight, it was generally conceded that Frank Harper would win over his opponent by a flattering majority. This was a weak candidate by unquestioned integrity, ability and fitness for the office to which he aspired—but because Mr. Harper is conceded by all who know him to be one of the ablest lawyers of the State, a gentleman of magnificent executive ability, clean, clear-headed, and certainly as well equipped to represent Queen Anne county in the State Senate as any man within her borders. From the character and standing of the other aspirants from the Third district it was apparent to the close observer that the majority, if not all, of them must win. Consequently each defeated candidate throughout the county feels that he had absolutely a fair and impartial trial before the voters, and can bow in resignation to the will of the majority. Never, perhaps in the history of Primary Elections in the county, was the absence of money so conspicuous. As far as we have been advised, money was not used for the purchasing of votes in a single district in the county—a fact which alone should commend the Crawford County System to all lovers of good, clean government.

The nominees for State Senate, Register of Wills, Treasurer, State's Attorney, Sheriff, one member of the Judges of the Orphans Court, and Surveyor were all elected from the Third district. The first District gave a nominee for House of Delegates; the Second District a nominee for House of Delegates, the Fourth District a nominee for House of Delegates and a nominee for Judge of the Orphans Court, and the Seventh District a nominee for Judge of the Orphans Court. Of course, under the law, each district gets a nominee for County Commissioner.

Five Delegates from each District were elected to a County convention, which was called at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by John E. George, Chairman of the State Central Committee. Mr. George, in calling the Convention to order, made a few appropriate remarks, in which he stated that for the first time in the history of the county the qualified voters selected the nominees of the Democratic Party by direct vote, and that while the result, as far as the distribution of offices, was not all that each district might desire, yet, taken as a whole, the ticket nominated was an exceptionally strong one, and one which should not only poll the full strength of a united Democracy in this county, but all friends of good government, irrespective of party affiliation.

Mr. George then asked for a permanent Chairman and Secretary, and Mr. Samuel Roe, of the Sixth District, was made Chairman and Mr. Clayton Wright, of the Third District, Secretary. After the result of the vote in the Primaries, as called by the State Central Committee, was read, the Convention named the following nominees:

For the State Senate—J. Frank Harper.

For the House of Delegates—John P. Roe, Dudley G. Roe, and W. J. Massey.

For Judges of the Orphans Court—Joseph B. Cook, Alfred Tucker, Sr., and Hiram G. Tarbutton.

The delegates elected to the State Convention, who were Messrs. Frank N. Hardesty, J. Frank Temple, W. H. Gibson, Dr. John B. Benton, Eugene L. Dudley, Charles B. Walls, and J. Edward Stevens, selected Mr. W. J. Price, Jr., as the eighth delegate, and these were endorsed by the County Convention and given the power of a half vote each in the State Convention, which meets in Baltimore August 5th. The following resolution, endorsing the State administration for the past 4 years, was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, that this Convention heartily endorses the administration of Gov. Warfield, believing that he has conscientiously endeavored to promote and protect the business and material interests of the people of Maryland, in full accordance with his inaugural promises, and also highly commends the able financial administration of Comptroller Atkinson and Treasurer Vandiver.

Upon motion of Mr. Edwin H. Brown, Mr. P. B. Hopper was accorded the privilege of naming the delegates to the Judicial Convention, which meets in Centreville August 15th, and a committee composed of one member from each district was appointed to wait upon Mr. Hopper and notify of the action of the convention. The delegates, as submitted by Mr. Hopper and ratified by the Convention, follows: Messrs. Charles E. Tucker, Madison Brown, James T. Earle, Madison B. Bordley, J. H. C. Legg, E. H. Brown, Jr., Finley Roberts, W. D. Smith, W. Irving Walker, William McKenney, C. S. Jump, Otto H. Werner, Carville Tolson, Thomas H. Dodd, Samuel Roe and Charles A. Bradley.

During the intermission, while the delegation was waiting upon Mr. Hopper, Mr. J. Frank Harper was called upon to address the Convention, and he acquitted himself in his usual strong, forceful and logical manner.

The Convention adjourned subject to the call of the Chairman.

Mr. Melles has been principal of some prominent schools in Delaware and Maryland and is a graduate of Randolph-Macon College and of the Maryland State Normal School. He was Principal of the Centreville High School in 1903 and 1904.

He will move with his family to Darnestown in August and be prepared to open the school early in September.

"Regular As The Sun" is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed by Forman & Keating, druggists, 25c.

Wheat Laden Vessel Sinks. As the result of being overloaded, the puny "Lankford," laden with a cargo of 2300 bushels of wheat from Kent county, swamped and went to the bottom of the Chesapeake Bay about half way between Love Point and Seven Foot Knoll last Saturday afternoon. The Lankford left Chestertown Friday morning under the command of Captain James Hyland, enroute for Baltimore, with the wheat, which belonged to Messrs. V. Nickerson and J. Romie Bryan, but about two o'clock Saturday afternoon the vessel sprang a leak, and all attempts at the pump being futile the crew were forced to abandon her about 2.30 o'clock. Arrangements are being made to raise the vessel, but the wheat stored in her will be of little value, which will mean considerable loss to the owners.

Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John E. Fyfe, one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helleborus Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator . . . makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system. He continues: 'In Helleborus we have a medicinal which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this special agent.' Dr. Fyfe further says: 'The following are among the leading indications for Helleborus (Unicorn root). Pain or cramping in the back, with leucorrhoea; a pale (or leaden) condition of the reproductive system; nervous, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic disease of the reproductive organs of women; constant secretion of leucorrhoea; due to a weak condition of the reproductive system; or to a general condition of the digestive organs and to a thin (thin) habit; dragging in the extreme lower part of the uterus."

"Loss of or loss of the above symptoms . . . is cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helleborus, and the medicinal properties of which it most faithfully represents."

"Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of 'Favorite Prescription,' Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: 'It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions, and general debility, it is useful.'"

"Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: 'In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is generally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states.'"

"Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: 'It is valuable in uterine hemorrhages, menorrhagia, and in congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation).'"

"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended."
