The Kaiser's Dream

There's a rumor now current, the strange it may seem; Of the German Emperor's wonderful dream Being tired of war, he lay down in bed, And, 'mongst other things, drempt that he was dead.

And in a deep coffin, lying in state, With his cold, waxen features frozen with hate, He wasn't long dead when he found to his cost, That his map of the next world and passports were lost.

So, leaving this earth to Heaven went straight, Jauntily strutting right up to the gate, But the lookout angel, in voice strong and clear, Said, begone Kaiser Wilhelm, we don't want you here.

Well! thought Wilhelm, that's very uncivil, Does he mean I must go straight to the Devil! So he turned oh his heel, and off he did go. Running full speed to the regions below.

But when he got there he was filled with dismay. For whilst waiting outside, he heard Satan say, To his imps, now look here boys, I give you all warning. I'm expecting the Kaiser down here this morning.

But don't let him in, for to me it is clear, We'rt far too good for the mongrel down here. If he gets in, there'll be the dickins to pay. For, bad as I am, he's much worse any day.

Oh, Satan, dear friend, the Emperor cried; Excuse me for listening, whilst waiting outside; If you don't let me in, then where can I go! "Indeed" said the Devil. "I really don't know."

Oh, do let me in, I'm feeling quite cold, If money you want, I've plenty of gold, Just give me a corner, no matter how hot, "No," said the Devil, "most certainly not."

We don't let apartments for riches or pelf. Here's some sulphur and matches, make a hell for yourself. Then he kicked Wilhelm out and vanished in smoke. And just at that moment the Kaiser awoke.

He jumped out of bed in a shivering sweat, And cried, Gott, that dream I shall never forget; That I won't go to Heaven, I know very well, But it's awful tough luck to be kicked out of hell.

"TEMPERANCE" PROPER TIME TO END BOOZE TRAFFIC FOREVER.

Church Hill, Jan 3, 1918. Editors The Observer. Centreville, Maryland.

time in the history of the world that required a deep and fervent faith in God and His word, it is now, when the whole world is quaking with fear of what this world's war will bring forth to the nations who are at each other's throat, and when will these United States have a better opportunling the intoxicating bowl under her feet by demanding a nation wide pro-1. hibition than right now."

The billions of dollars annually ever brought upon the land, and every dollar thus expended is an economic waste and a drain upon the physical. mental, moral and financial stamina), of the country The United States, divorced from the curse of booze, would is become the best, the strongest and the noblest champion of humanity the world ever saw and would take the COME AT ONCE. lead in all that makes the true glory of mankind

The alliance of the saloon interests with the politics of this country is an other curse, and to this influence alone; is due much of the rottenness of our !. politics The booze business is without one single, solitary, redeeming quality. and the sooner it is blotted out the better it will be for mankind

Big business interests in all sections of thec onutry are lining up against the boose curse, practically all the many of the large manufacturing plants have adopted rules against it. realizing more than ever the import ance of efficiency in all lines of bus iness and that efficiency is lessened; by the use of booze in any form

While we do not agree on the question of "woman's rights," all who favor prohibition should agree that the women have a duty to perform on the side of temperance not at the polls but in the homes she must get ; busy Her voice not her vote, in what ;

The sin of intemperance the great est sin in our land falls the heaviest. as do all the sins of men on the home; and heart of woman. The drunkard destroys himself, to be sure, but he; does get some enjoyment, some gratifi cation of his debased appetites and) passtons during the debauch with his old ragged and diseased, are suffer ing all these extremities of misery for his wickedness and that of the greater criminal, the boose setter

Women of America, now is your gels, to abolish by law the manufac ture and truffic of boose in the United ; States Then can America stand forth promitly as the hope of the world Then . can the other nations of the world look ernment will certainly get after all to our land as the pillar of fire that i income tax stackers I feel constrain ed to may this strictly in the interest is to lead them from darkness in of persons of every class liable to the light Yours very truly.
