way, and yet the Penitentiary was now paying a revenue to the State, and the same might be expected from the House in the course of time. The Maryland Hospital, which Mr. Davis had referred to as those unfortunate insane persons whose affliction appealed to our humanity and whose poverty appealed to our charity. Costly it had been in the beginning, but no more so than the dictates of humanity and the condition of the unfortunate for whose use it was intended required. It now, he said, had a handsome balance to its credit, and Maryland had the reputation of having the best institution of the kind in the country. Of the 187 cents mentioned, 12 cents was for the maintenance of the building, while the balance of 175 cents was for the support of the inmates.

Hymeneal.—If our readers should notice a suspicion of nervousness in the general make up of the Times this week, they will appreciate the cause when they learn that on Wednesday evening last, Mr. Moses C. Gossell our efficient young foreman was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Miss Rebecca Clements, of Baltimore. The anticipation of this happy event has somewhat upset the system which prevails in a well regulated printing office, the thoughts of the whole force—from the editors down—naturally running on orange blossoms and wedding bells to the exclusion of all else, and "the determination to follow the good example of his foreman as soon as a pretty opportunity presents itself."
The marriage ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's mother, in Baltimore City, by Rev. Mr. Baker, pastor of Union Square Methodist Episcopal Church and was witnessed by many friends of the bride and groom. We extend to the young couple our sincere congratulations and best wishes for a long life of happiness and prosperity, and we assure the fair bride that if her groom makes as good, attentive and dutiful a husband as he does a foreman—which we feel sure he will do—that she may feel herself as much blessed in her choice as he feels in his.

McCormick's New Iron Mower only weighs 520 lbs., and is the lightest draft mower in the market; is wonderfully simple, and has all of the very latest improvements of a perfect front cut Mower, and was thoroughly tested in the hay fields of 1878 and met with grand success. To call and see this Mower now on exhibition at my ware-rooms and learn terms will be to purchase it. E. A. Talbot, District Agent for C. H. & L. J. McCormick, Pioneer Manufacturers of Harvesting Machines at Chicago, Illinois.

Sale of City Property.—On Monday last David Keelmeier sold his stone house on Main Street, this city, occupied by Bierly Bros., to J. J. Lanekin, for $2,000, subject to a yearly ground rent of $42.

ELKRIDGE LANDING,
May 28th, 1879.

MESRS. EDITORS: Your correspondent who has long been a reader of your paper, has of late looked in vain for news from the ancient village of Elkridge Landing, in view of this state of affairs, the idea struck us, that if we should give you a few lines of news they would not come amiss. Well, the old village is in full fledge, is steadily improving in appearance, and the increasing influx of "Summer home" families from Baltimore city. The streets (of which unfortunately we have but one), are being lighted by lamps at private expense.

There have been numerous improvements in the business portion of the town and our merchants seem to vie with each other in making their places as attractive as possible.

It will be remembered by many of your readers that on the occasion of one of our merchants enlarging his premises, it was supposed he was encroaching on the county road from Elkridge Landing to Hookly Mill, and a petition was gotten up asking the County Commissioners to restrain him. After an examination of his title the case was promptly withdrawn. Now we have a fine brick structure going up on the opposite side, the line of which is exactly in the middle of the county road, and leaves us as one of our main thoroughfares an alley about twelve feet wide in which it is impossible for two vehicles to pass. A spirit of indignation is manifesting itself among persons who use the road and the question is being asked, who gives authority for doing these things. This road was given to the county as far back as July 9th, 1827, and it is a matter of surprise that it should now be so contracted as to be almost impassable.

Yesterday your correspondent saw two of our leading physicians stopped by collision of their carriages at the point spoken of. We who are compelled to pay the taxes think that the interests of our town should be more carefully looked after in this respect. MORTIMER OSBENNER.

Berthon Items.—The proceeds of the exhibition of the Alberton Sunday Association amounted to nearly sixty dollars. The day might the cream of the product was repeated for the benefit of the Protestant Chapel, Jones-town, realizing $100.
The Rev. Mr. Ashon Underhill, of England, is here on a visit to the venerable Dr. Sykes. The latter is seventy six years of age, and has been sixty years since he was born.
A young man about twelve years of age, was buried on Monday last in the Junior Order of Rechaboth. He was a member. He is the only child of the family buried here since the death of three or four years.
George Allen has resigned his position of man of track repairs. He has been employed in the position of man of track repairs since over five years. His successor is Mr. Jas. W. Smith.
A field farm on the railroad, one of the best here, has been sold to a party from Virginia.
The corner stone of the new Catholic Church will be laid here on Sunday, at two o'clock P. M. The services will be of a most appropriate character.

Funeral.—On Friday next week (July 1st), the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company will run an excursion train from Winchester, Virginia, on the occasion of the unveiling of the monument erected in memory of the Confederate dead and decoration of their graves. The C. S. A. and Navy Society of Maryland will

M.

Shooting Affray.—Yesterday morning about 6 o'clock there occurred a shooting affray near the Union factory, about half a mile east of this city, between Lemuel Bewley, and F. V. Lindenbergh, of this city, in which Bewley received four pistol balls in different parts of his body. The men it seems were just starting for their daily work and met in the road, when Bewley began to accuse Lindenbergh of circulating some derogatory reports concerning him, which the latter denied. Hot words ensued between the two men and words led to blows and in the encounter Bewley got something the better of his antagonist. Lindenbergh then drew a revolver and fired five or six shots at Bewley, four of which took effect, one in the wrist, one in his hip, one near the abdomen and one in the fleshy part of his leg. The wounded man is attended by Dr. T. B. Owings and Dr. Saml A. Keene, who do not think his wounds likely to prove of a very serious nature unless inflammation should set in. Bewley is a house carpenter by trade and a brother of the late William J. Bewley who was at one time Mayor of this city. Lindenbergh is employed at the factory near which the unfortunate affair occurred.

The Cloud House.—Ladies' and Gents' Dining Saloon, 415 West Balto St. We are bound to keep up with the times, and offer a good breakfast, dinner or supper for 25 cents. Weighty Calf.—A Durham cow belonging to Mr. James Bragshaw, was made the happy mother last week of a calf weighing at birth 78 lbs. This we know is an extensive story, yet we have it from indisputable authority.

Those who need pleasant, profitable work, should correspond with them.
Besides paying the large amounts of postage stated above, their express and freight bills are enormous—only small orders are sent by mail, the larger being sent by express and freight. American homes should be made beautiful by refined works of art at prices for really meritorious pictures, now so low that there can be no excuse for the walls to remain gloomy, unadorned and cheerless, and the tendency of the times will be to make more refined and dignified the lives of all dwellers therein.

A Horse for Twenty-Five Cents saved by one pound box of ENGLISH CONDITION POWDER.

The infallible medicine for Horses and Cattle.

A. J. P. TABLER, Agent for Ellicott City.

Mr. Lorillard is said to be the third American who has mustered up courage to cross the water with his stable. Almost twenty-five years ago Mr. Richard Ton Broeck carried over Pryor, Princess, Starke, Sattelle and Cuppie to try conclusions with the English races, and though his horses did some good running and carried off some of the "cents," yet on the whole his campaign was not a successful one. Mr. Sanford, who went over three years ago with Peckness, Mate, Brown Prince, Donna-Start and Bay Final, was still more unlucky. Mr. Lorillard has done better than either of his predecessors, and has won substantial honors.

Edward Alexander Gray of Cincinnati was in 1822 possessor of $48,000. He was a well educated, intelligent young man, and particularly pious. Convinced that the scriptural text, "Sell all that you have and give alms," was a binding injunction, he began to dispose of his property and give the money to the poor. He bestowed the gifts slowly and carefully, and it was not until 1850 that the last dollar was gone. He is now a religious missionary in Cincinnati, penniless, but completely absorbed in his work.

Forty-six thousand two hundred and eighty-six persons emigrated last year from Germany, very nearly 5,000 more than in the preceding year. The number in the past ten years is estimated at 815,251.
