PEARL HARBOR. Protected by Sharks and Turtles and Likely to be the Pacific's Gibraltar.

No finer trip out of Honolulu can be made than to Pearl City by water. The route is just outside the surf line.

When Pearl harbor is an accomplished fact, with masked batteries at its entrance, the island will have behind its fortifications the modern mid-Pacific station of the United States.

A bird's-eye view of Pearl City and its surroundings is a treat. It is best had from an elevation in the future metropolis itself.

Pearl City is quite a little place. It is laid out in wide avenues and large lots. There are stores, residences and a couple of small hotels.

Readers will easily call to mind the story which is told of Cleopatra, to illustrate her luxurious habits of living.

Do we not all believe that the magnificent Cleopatra, regardless of expense, dissolved in her wine cup a pearl of great price as if it had been a lump of sugar?

Shocking Bigamy. The Rev. Dr. Gussulsky tells a story of two New England old ladies who were overheard in conversation to the following effect:
