RANAWAY.

From the Subscriber about two weeks since negro man Hooper Camper, aged about 25 years, five feet eight or nine inches high, slender built, quite black, with high cheek bones, thick lips and with a real African face. He has been seriously injured in his hips, and has a very winding gait and turns his toes out unnaturally far. He cannot straddle a Horse but always rides side ways. His identity can at all times be ascertained by putting him to this test. He is an accomplished runaway, having practised it from his earliest years, live with whom he might, and for this reason, cannot afford to offer the usual reward. Any person however, who will bring him home, or assist me in getting possession of him will be liberally compensated for their trouble. If this reach his ear, and he chose to come home himself, as he sometimes does, or if any coloured man will bring him home, I pledge myself not to punish him for the offence in any way. Any person black, or white, harbouring him, employing him, concealing him, or in any manner throwing difficulties in the way of my obtaining possession of him, will have the law enforced against them in the most rigorous manner.
