THOMAS F. BOWIE, of Prince George's,
JAMES B. RICAUD, of Kent.

Congressional Districts.
1st Dist. AUGUSTUS R. SOLLERS,
2nd " J. PHILIP ROMAN,
3rd " JOHN T. B. DORSEY,

5th " HENRY W. ARCHER,
6th " HENRY H. GOLDSBOROUGH.

MISREPRESENTATION.—We stated in our last paper that we considered the political sentiments of a few Baltimore rowdies of so little importance, that we should decline any further discussion, in regard to the matters here on the 16th ult. When we came to this determination we did not foresee the course of the Democrat published on Wednesday last. Thinking perhaps that, from our previous remarks, we would make no reply to him, the Editor of that paper has quoted the sentence copied by us last week from the Baltimore Clipper, and denies that the Clipper made any such statement. In order to give color to this misrepresentation, he goes to the trouble of publishing nearly a column of the very article which contained the sentence we quoted, inserting the Clipper's account of the meeting nearly down to the identical passage taken by us from the paper, and no further.

Such perversions as this will never benefit the party to which the Democrat owes allegiance, and we wonder at the Editor's want of tact in touching upon the subject. In order, however, to let the public into the truth of the matter, we would ask the Democrat in candor. Was not the article published in your last issue, and credited to the Clipper, taken in reality from the Eastern Star, having been first copied from the Clipper by that paper? We remember to have seen just such an extract in the Star, a week or two since. Let us have the answer next week, Mr. Editor. We do not say that your article was taken from the Star, but only ask the question. We do not stop here however. Let there should be some misunderstanding in regard to the matter, we make the following offer—not jestingly, but in good faith—and we will stand up to what we say. If the article, copied into the Chronicle of the 28th ult., from the Baltimore Clipper, in relation to the matter in dispute, is not contained in the Clipper of the 15th ult., the assertions of the Democrat to the contrary notwithstanding, we will give to the Editor of the latter paper the entire proceeds of the Chronicle, for one year from this time. And further—If the piece we quoted is not a continuation of the very identical publication in the Democrat of the 1st inst., we will do as proposed above.

What says the Editor of the Democrat now? What says the public to such a statement. The proof of the matter is easy, viz: by reference to the Clipper itself. The article alluded to is of no moment—the political creed of the noters is of no moment—the whole affair is a matter of "great cry and little wool"—but we like to see a fair stand up even in trifles. If an end cannot be gained by fair means, do not attempt to gain it by foul—and when convinced of error acknowledge it, openly and frankly. If the Editor of the Democrat is right let him prove it by publishing the Clipper's entire statement, and we will stand up to our bargain. If wrong let him come out and say so.

No gonging.
Democrat,
We are sorry we gonged you neighbor when we said that Democrats disturbed Mr. Bowie during his speech, but there was no help for it you were too busy. Even had all the rioting, hawking, &c., on the 16th ult., been committed by Whigs, you should have kept silent in regard to it, till the beam was removed from your own eye. Party spirit is a great thing in this country, Mr. Democrat, and people under its influence "sit queer antics" sometimes. Instance: the whig ratiification meeting at Cambridge was a mere microscopic concern, while the Pole Raising at Vienna, was "Well Attended," and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. As in regard to the Clipper paragraph, a part was left out. The Editor does not say that the Whigs had to aid in the erection of the pole, the Democrats being too scarce to accomplish it. We were not present ourselves and know nothing of the matter, but we heard some such thing rumored. Give us the whole account, neighbor.

After this week our Coincisions will be all at their posts, and we shall be able to make the Chronicle more interesting.

PROGRESS OF HUMBURG.—The Spiritual Telegraph, for this week, has an account of a ghostly communion recently held at Auburn, State of N. York, (that hot-bed of the "isms"), in the course of which the spirit of Henry Clay, we are gravely told, was evoked, and spoke (through the "medium") as follows:

"The Medium" [looking into the Spirit World] raised his head and exclaimed:
"Yonder is Mr. Clay! His tall, majestic figure moves gracefully. Feasting his soul in admiration, he raises his eyes to the high canopy, and tracing the lofty and noble columns, he meditates and says:

"O, why did not this scene open before upon my eyes! Here are joys to me hitherto unknown, here eternal harmony swells around and above, and even repose has a voice that lulls to music. There is no Constitution to be broken—no compact to be violated—no platforms to be erected, to concentrate action. No strife or war of words is required to liberate the captive from his fetters; but the soft zephyrs of eternal love breathe over us, cheering and invigorating the happy throng; while smiles of eternal truth play on the face of the Redeemer of the World, to gladden the hearts of all. And the solemn psalms of praise and thanksgiving now go up from my other servants and my humble self.

H. CLAY."
Talk of sending off Missionaries to convert the Heathen in Africa and India, when there are a people so benighted at our doors. We agree with the sentiments expressed by the Springfield Republican, that the doctrines now widely disseminated by these Rappers, are a gross and blasphemous infidelity.

THE NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR.—The Directors of the Great Exhibition of the World's Industry have selected a plan for their building. It is a Greek Cross, with a dome over the intersection. Each diameter of the Cross is 365 feet long and 149 feet broad, and the dome is 130 feet high. There are in the Building 11,000 square feet of space on the ground floor, and 62,000 square feet in the galleries. It is estimated to cost $1,950,000. The building is to be entirely of iron and glass, and is already advertised to open on the 2d of May, 1853.

Mr. John Van Buren, in a speech made at Cleveland in 1845, used the following language:
"I am the unmitigated enemy of slavery, and would have it abolished without delay. I say, therefore, for myself—and I wish to be understood as speaking for myself alone—that, let what will come, I shall under no necessity whatever support a man that does not believe slavery to be an un-mixed curse, and who will not by virtue of his office use all constitutional power to abolish it."

Mr. Van Buren and all his followers are now supporting Gen. Pierce.

THE NATIONAL FLAG.—The Cincinnati Gazette says that the following is the original resolution adopting the stars and stripes:

"In Congress, June 18, 1777—Resolved, That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes alternately red and white; that the Union be thirteen stars, white, in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

As new States were added to the Union, from time to time, new stripes were added to the flag, till the number were increased to fifteen or twenty. At length, about thirty years ago, the stripes were reduced by act of Congress to the original number of thirteen.

WHEELING BRIDGE.—In the House of Representatives on Monday the Senate's amendment declaring the wheeling and Belmont bridges over the Ohio river lawful structures in their present position and elevation, and also declaring them post routes, was adopted, the vote being—Yeas 92, nays 42. The bill with its amendments was returned to the Senate for final concurrence.

The Frederick Examiner states that foreign small notes are rapidly disappearing from circulation in that town, in anticipation of the first of October, when it will no longer be lawful to pass them.

A Western editor thinks Hiram Powers, the sculptor, is a swindler, because he chiseled an unfortunate Greek girl out of a block of marble.

There are in the United States eighty-one women holding the office of postmaster, thirty one of whom are in Pennsylvania. Some of these are important offices.

Another batch of emigrants, numbering 233, sailed from New York on Sunday, for Port Phillip, Australia, in the ship William Frothingham.

IOWA.—The result of the election in this State is encouraging to the Whigs. Heretofore the Democrats had both members of Congress and all the State Senators except four, and all the members of the lower house except five, but now the Whigs have elected one member of Congress and have almost annihilated the democratic majority in the legislature.

ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER! Important to Dyspeptics.—Dr. J. S. HOUGHTON'S PEPsin, The True Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice, prepared from Rennet, or the Fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., Philadelphia. This is truly a wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, curing after Nature's own Method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice. Pamphlets, containing scientific evidence of its value, furnished by agents gratis. See notice among Medical Advertisements.

MARRIED.
At Hoppers Island, on the 9th ult., by the Rev. James Hays, Mr. THOMAS ADAMS, to Miss ROBINSON.

On the 24th ult., by the same, Mr. PRICHETT MURPHY, to Miss KESIAH PRICHETT, all of this county.

In Baltimore, on Thursday, the 26th ult., by the Rev. Edward Heffner, THOMAS H. COBURN, of that city, to Miss ADELIA KIRBY, formerly of this county.

DIED.

In Baltimore, on the 21st ult., after a long and painful illness VICTORIA, aged 1 year, 2 months and 8 days, daughter of Thos. Henry and Mary Wheeler.

In this town on Thursday night last, the 26th ult., of Dysentery, after two weeks illness CHARLOTTE, in the 19th year of her age, wife of Hewitt Langsdale, Esq.

Oh! fell destroyer! when will thy wrath be appeased? When will the last fatal arrow from thy quiver be sped? The young—tender and most cherished, seem to be thy special mark.

How vain! how transitory are the hopes of earth—as dew on the flowers.
A few months since, a happy bride, all bright and joyful—new sources of happiness were opened to thee—the tendrils of thy maiden heart were twined in pure, confiding love around a devoted husband—soothing and supporting him, and strengthened by his love. But alas! they have withered—drooped and fallen to the earth—desolate is his home.

The kind minister of God as he held that cold-nerved hand, bedewed with death, told thee of the nearness of thy end, and in fervor breathed to thee, the sweet consolations of religion—that face until then so dim, now brightened, and seemed to dissipate the mists of death. "Thy will be done. I put my trust in my Redeemer."
The soft-mellow cadence of that dying voice as it joined in that last happy hymn, will oft echo in memory.

Thy friends, will ne'er forget thy last Farewell! And with His help—they hope with thee to dwell.

WHEREAS, By a Decree of the High Court of chancery in England, dated the 26 day of June, 1852, made in a cause wherein Sophia Seney, widow, and Eliza Watkins Harwood, spinster, are plaintiffs, and George Baugh Allen and Mary Ann Hilditch, widow, John Lloyd Vaughan Watkins, John Henry Beck and Maria Elizabeth, his wife, when they shall come within the jurisdiction of the said court, are defendants; It was referred to William Brougham, Esq., one of the Masters of the said court, to enquire and state to the court whether Rachael the wife of Ridsen Harwood, late of the Town of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, in the United States of North America, and Mary the wife of Moses Passapae, late of the Town of Baltimore aforesaid, in the pleadings of the cause named, were the persons who in the Indenture of the 2d day of February, 1825, in the pleadings mentioned, are called "the two deceased Sisters of Elizabeth Watkins" therein named, or who were the persons thereby intended, & whether they or either and which of them were or was living at the date of the said Indenture; and if the said Master should find that the said Rachael Harwood and Mary Passapae were such sisters, then it was ordered that the Master should enquire and state whether the said two sisters or either and which of them had any and what children, or issue of deceased children living at the date of the said Indenture; and whether any and what children or issue living at the time of the death of George Price Watkins in the pleadings named; and if it should appear that any of such children or issue was or were living at the date of the said Indenture had died in the lifetime of the said George Price Watkins, it was ordered that the Master should enquire and state who were the personal representatives of the children or issue so dying, and also who were the personal representatives of any such children or issue who might have died since the death of the said George Price Watkins. To the advantages of a regular course of training for the profession, Mr. D. adds eighteen years experience in some of the first establishments, in Scotland, and in India; and has brought with him from the highest authorities in these countries and from the Scottish Educational Institute, of which he is a Graduate and Corresponding Member, numerous testimonials of his qualifications and fitness for the work. From the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Madras; Rev. J. B. Tucker, secretary C. M. S. Madras; Rev. A. R. Simonds, Wadham College, Oxford, Head Master, Bish. Corrie's Gram. School; Rev. M. Winslow and other Missionaries in South India; A. F. Bruce, Esq., Postmaster-General, India; Capt. A. S. Grant, Assistant Adjutant General, H. S. Force; Col. Alexander, Adjutant General and from other Officers in the Madras Army; Committee of Bishop Corrie's Grammar School, Madras; Ministers of St. Andrew's Church, Madras; Annual Reports to Government of the Committee of St. Andrew's School, Madras, J. Barker, Esq., late Agent Bank of Scotland, Dumfries, W. Fergusson, late Governor of Sierra Leone.

The domestic arrangements are wholly under the superintendence of Mrs. Daniel, who also takes part in the scholastic duties; her experience in the management of the young fully qualifying her for such an important charge.
Pupils are received from the age of nine years. The requisites for admission being, some fluency in reading, an acquaintance with the first principles of Arithmetic, Geography, and Grammar.

In English, special attention is given to elocution, and Composition, that every Pupil may be enabled to read and write her own language, with correctness, intelligence and ease. Auxiliary to this, and as a desirable attainment on the part of any who may have it in view to become Teachers, a Class will be formed at the commencement of every Session, for the study of Latin.
The study of French, which is an essential part of female education, has a prominent place in the course of instruction. Besides the translation of Standard Authors, History and other studies are pursued through the medium of this language; and in order to promote the improvement of the Pupils in French conversation, an accomplished Parsian Lady resides in the family.
Lectures are given on Chemistry, and other branches of Physical Science, illustrated by suitable apparatus—and a Library of well selected books of reference is open to the Senior Pupils.
The Principals spare neither trouble nor expense, in order to make the Institution worthy of public confidence; and, convinced that the cultivation of the intellectual powers alone, is not sufficient to qualify the Pupil for the proper discharge of the duties and responsibilities of woman's life, it is their care, whilst communicating knowledge in every department of useful and elegant learning, that the education imparted shall be essentially founded on, and pervaded by the principles of religion—that best and highest knowledge, without which else is vain.
