practical rights!" There is no place in all Secessia where a man could declare himself a Union man without putting his life in instant jeopardy, nor where a press dare publish a remonstrance against perjury, robbery, and murder, carried on under the name of Southern rights.—Oddly enough, Mr. Yancey came near quoting a line from the "Star Spangled Banner," but recollected himself in time to substitute "oppressed" for "brave," and so narrowly escaped what would have been an awkward slip of the tongue. —Missouri Democrat.

J. N. BAIRD, D. D. S., would respectfully announce to his friends and patrons that he has returned to Easton, and will be pleased to see those desiring his services.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE

BRITISH REVIEWS.

Great Inducements to Subscribe!

Premiums and Reductions.

L. SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

1. The Landon Quarterly (Conservative.)
2. The Edinburg Review (Whig.)
3. The North British Review (Free Church.)
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal.)
5. Blackwood's Edinburg Magazine (Tory.)

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground betwen the hasily written news items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the daily Journal, and the ponderous Tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away.—It is to these Periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific, and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

Subscribers wishing also the Nos. for 1861, will be supplied at the following extremely low rates.
