

The South.

HABEAS CORPUS.

Next to personal security, says Mr. Justice Blackstone, the law of England regards, as the most sacred, the personal liberty of individual men.

So our own Chief Justice Marshall, in the case of John A. Crook, 1805, says: "The public safety should never be a pretext for the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus."

Historical Parallels. We hold those truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights.

Yes, sir, we wish you, but how is that blessing to be preserved? I shall not be here in my own land, but I shall be in the hands of the British.

Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. Suspect every one who approaches with insolent airs.

Where are your checks in this government? Your strength will be in the hands of your enemies.

Upon the whole it has been the policy of the British authority to oblige us to support their interests.

being ever out of the question.—Chief Justice Drayton, Charge to the Grand Jury, Charleston, May 25, 1776.

By our liberties and safety cannot be depended upon the arms of Great Britain. We are not to be considered as a part of their empire.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter from Washington, says:—The Philadelphia Inquirer furnishes the following information:—There are but few troops in Alexandria.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter from Washington, says:—The Philadelphia Inquirer furnishes the following information:—There are but few troops in Alexandria.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter from Washington, says:—The Philadelphia Inquirer furnishes the following information:—There are but few troops in Alexandria.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter from Washington, says:—The Philadelphia Inquirer furnishes the following information:—There are but few troops in Alexandria.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter from Washington, says:—The Philadelphia Inquirer furnishes the following information:—There are but few troops in Alexandria.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter from Washington, says:—The Philadelphia Inquirer furnishes the following information:—There are but few troops in Alexandria.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter from Washington, says:—The Philadelphia Inquirer furnishes the following information:—There are but few troops in Alexandria.

no sudden explosion of thunder, in a word, not the least spark should have struck them with great commotion.

By our Second and Third Editions of yesterday. From New York. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By our Second and Third Editions of yesterday. From New York. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By our Second and Third Editions of yesterday. From New York. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By our Second and Third Editions of yesterday. From New York. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By our Second and Third Editions of yesterday. From New York. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By our Second and Third Editions of yesterday. From New York. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By our Second and Third Editions of yesterday. From New York. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By our Second and Third Editions of yesterday. From New York. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By our Second and Third Editions of yesterday. From New York. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

The Government in a Quandary. The Washington correspondent of the New York Times says:—The Government is becoming embarrassed with the question of how the prisoners captured in this conflict now going on shall be disposed of.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

arrived on the other side, and will cross over and land here at 5 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Arrival of the Steamer America. HULL, May 30.—The steamer America, with dates to the 25th, has arrived from Liverpool.

The Latest from Virginia—Arrest of Union Men as Hostages. WASHINGTON, May 29.—A gentleman who arrived here this morning from the neighborhood of Centerville, Va., about 23 miles from Alexandria,

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.

By the Philadelphia Train. A letter to the Philadelphia Ledger from New York, says:—The steamer Hercules, arrived this evening with dates to 25th, reports.