

The South: PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING BY J. M. WALLS & CO. 1100 SOUTH PRINCE STREET, BALTIMORE, MD. MONDAY AFTERNOON, FEB. 3

PAMPHLETS. We have just issued and have for sale at this office, No. 112 Baltimore street, a pamphlet containing the message of J. R. Darnall and Governor Letcher, and the letters of Ex-Governor Love and George S. Saunders. Price 5 cents.

THE NEWS. This has been the dulllest day of the season, and we are, up to the hour of writing, without a solitary fresh item of interest from any quarter.

REPORTS FROM THE SOUTH. Almost daily the American news up to us is a dismal monotony consisting of news communicated by "intelligence contrabands" or by some prisoner just released from custody in Richmond.

THE MARYLAND INSTITUTE. The sixth of the regular course of lectures before the Maryland Institute, will be delivered to-morrow night at the Hall, by the Rev. N. H. Morrison, his subject being "The South."

THE NASHVILLE AND TENNESSEE. Taylor Wood writes from London to the Albany Journal, under date of January 11th, as follows: Mr. Adams received a despatch late last evening from Earl Russell, stating that the United States ship Tuscadero had entered Southampton.

FINANCIAL. The New York papers speak gloomily of financial affairs. The New York Express of Saturday evening says: The week closes with less confidence in the future, growing out of the hesitancy of Congress upon the financial policy of the country.

JOHN S. GITTINGS & CO. BANKERS AND STOCK BROKERS. No. 29 South Street. ADVANCES MADE ON STOCKS, REAL ESTATE, BONDS, RECEIPTS AND ALLOW INTEREST ON DEPOSITS.

AMUSEMENTS. FRONT STREET THEATRE. GEORGE KNEVEL, Lessee and Manager. This (Monday) EVENING, February 3, 1862, the charming and popular comedy of THE CHERRY TREE, by THE GREAT FRENCH COMEDY WRITER, M. Scribe, will be presented.

RUSSELL'S LETTER TO THE LONDON TIMES. WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The New York journals of yesterday pursue "the roaring nightingale" line of writing. One rejoices that Mr. Russell will be disappointed, because Mason and Stillé will be surprised, if demanded, as nothing must be allowed to prevent the prosecution of the campaign.

A PIOUS JOURNAL. The Clipper, though somewhat uncharitable as well as puerile in its utterances, and decidedly pharisaical in spirit, is eminently pious, according to its understanding of piety, and to-day gets off the following homily upon "necessitarianism."

MEDICAL. On Sunday evening next, the Charity Concert for the benefit of indigent children, will take place at the Hall of the Maryland Institute, under the direction of Prof. Geary, who so acceptably conducted the recent concert at the Assembly Rooms.
