

BALTIMORE CLIPPER.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 10, 1841.

PUBLIC MEETING. One week has nearly terminated since the death of General Harrison, and no movement has taken place in Baltimore towards a call of the citizens to testify their sense of the afflictive event, and their regard for the private virtues and public services of the deceased.

INDEPENDENT BLUES. This old and patriotic Company, has passed resolutions on the subject of General Harrison's death, which do them credit. It will be seen by their proceedings, which we publish, that they recommend a procession, and invite the Mayor to convene the Council: and they also ask other associations to take the subject into immediate consideration.

It will be seen by the advertisement that the BALTIMORE TYPOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY will hold a meeting this evening for the purpose of making arrangements to pay a proper tribute of respect to the memory of the late President of the United States.

THE OCEAN for this week, dressed in the appropriate mourning, with a full and detailed account of the death, funeral procession, burial, &c. of our late lamented President, Wm. Henry Harrison, besides other matter of a literary and miscellaneous character, together with the foreign news by the steamer Acadia, can be obtained at the counter, done up in wrappers or otherwise—price per single copy 6c. We recommend it to the reader upon the present occasion especially, as it contains the fullest account published in this city of the late President, hero, patriot and statesman.

EXTRA CLIPPERS. The foreign intelligence received yesterday by the steamer Acadia, which appears in this morning's paper, was issued from this office on an extra sheet in thirty minutes after the arrival of the mail.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. The arrival of the steamer Acadia, at Boston, furnishes news nine days later from England. We consider the tenor of the intelligence brought by this arrival decidedly of a pacific character; and are convinced that Great Britain has no disposition to engage in a war with the United States. The report made by Mr. Pickens had naturally caused excitement in England, as it induced the belief that the government of this country was about to assume a hostile attitude towards that nation—but more recent information had allayed the irritation, and restored confidence that the amicable relations between the two countries would not be disturbed. We have not the slightest apprehension of an immediate war, nor do we think it probable that it will result from any existing ground of difference. It is true, the people and government of England appear to be very sensitive on the subject of Mr. Leod's arrest; and, should he be condemned and executed, it is possible that we may have some sparring—but, if acquitted, every thing will resume the usual tranquil course. The consequences of a war with the United States are too momentous to Great Britain to permit it to be lightly undertaken. In the present condition of that country, with considerable internal dissension; with a large portion of her population dependant upon the United States for the material by which they earn their bread—an immense amount of her capital invested in the stocks of this country; and her Irish subjects panting for emancipation—it would be madness to seek a contest with us. John Bull will reflect well before he precipitates himself into a war, from which he cannot escape without the most serious loss.

As to what the French papers say on the subject, it is not to be regarded. It is well known that France looks upon England with an angry eye, and is eager to wipe off the disgrace of having seen England and the allies in possession of the French capital. It is therefore natural, that the French journals should seek to foment the dispute between England and the United States, and to produce a rupture. We have no doubt that, in case of such an event, we should speedily have the aid of France; and the probability is, that a short time would involve all of the continental powers in the contest. We hope that prudence will prevent such an occurrence.

U. S. SHIP PREBLE. By letters received in this city, dated February 15, 1841, we learn that the U. S. Ship Preble arrived in the river Tagus, off Lisbon, after a severe and arduous passage of 31 days from Boston, eight of which were spent within about 60 miles of the mouth of the Tagus, in severe gales of wind, accompanied by constant rain. The officers and crew have suffered much since leaving port, not having had, during the whole passage, 24 consecutive hours of clear weather.

The Preble had obtained a reputation of being very crank, but she proved herself, says the writer, to be as stiff a ship as ever I sailed in, of which we have had an excellent opportunity to judge. She also sails well, having caught every thing we pursued, so that, in every respect, she has proved herself an excellent vessel. Our charge to Naples was a passenger. All well.

THE MAGNET. Accounts from Van Dieman's Land to the first of September state that the scientific expedition under Capt. Ross, consisting of the Erebus and Terror, has arrived at Hobart Town, after having been at the Cape of Good Hope, St. Helena, and Kerguelen's Land. The magnetic experiments which Captain Ross was charged with making, had, it is said, induced him to entertain the idea that he could solve the problem of magnetic influence, in so far as to establish the position that it does not depend upon the earth.

We copy the above from an exchange paper, and think it somewhat extraordinary that Capt. Ross should now attempt to solve the problem of magnetic influence upon principles diametrically opposed to those which he had induced the scientific world to believe were firmly established by his experiments and observations in previous years. Whilst on the voyage with Sir John Ross, to discover a North West passage, he is said to have discovered the magnetic pole; and he gives its location with great precision and in terms of high exultation. He settled the question of the source of magnetic attraction very satisfactorily to his own mind, and not less conclusively to the minds of the philosophers and government of England, if we judge by the honors which were conferred on him in consequence of his discovery. And yet, if his present theory be correct, his former views were erroneous, and his magnetic pole a mere fancy of the imagination. We should like to see the principles upon which his new theory is based; for we are confident that he cannot show that they are in accordance with sound philosophy or practical experience. We know that electricity pervades the atmosphere, but the polarity of the needle cannot be attributed to this cause. We are satisfied that polar attraction ceases at a certain elevation above the earth.

Although we do not believe in the correctness of the new theory of Capt. Ross, we attach little credit to his discovery of the North Magnetic Pole—for we doubt its existence. We know that the needle is attracted to the North; but the variation shews that there are different sources of attraction. Every bed of iron ore or amber, or other good recipient of the electric fluid, is a magnet capable of attracting the needle—hence as the needle is brought in the vicinity of such local magnets, it inclines towards them. This is daily experienced by surveyors of land. Any substance charged with electricity becomes a magnet, of more or less power according to its size and the quantity of the fluid which it has absorbed. If there be a magnetic pole at 69 N. latitude, or at any other given point, it is evident that, on reaching a higher northern latitude, the position of the needle must change; but whalers have proceeded as high as 84, or perhaps higher, (if our memory be correct,) without this effect being produced.

PENNSYLVANIA BANKS. The Philadelphia Spirit of the Times of yesterday, says: "By the western mail which arrived last night, we received the gratifying intelligence that the governor had returned the Bank bill with his veto." The effect of the veto is to leave the banks subject to the law of 1840, unless they be relieved by some act of the present legislature, which can receive the sanction of the governor. If we are not in error, the effect of the act of 1840 is to cause the banks to wind up their concerns, or to resume specie payments. If the process of winding up be pursued, it will cause unexampled distress, and irretrievable ruin to many persons.

UNITED STATES BANK. We publish the proceedings at the adjourned meetings of stockholders, from which it will be seen, that the name of the institution is to be changed, and its capital stock reduced from thirty-five to fourteen millions of dollars. The branches are to be discontinued and the expenses retrenched. It is probable that, in its reduced form, it will be conducted with more prudence and safety, than in its former unwieldy shape and imposing title. It has, however, to pass the ordeal of the legislature, and to receive the sanction of the governor, before the proposed changes can be made. We refer to the proceedings for particulars.

POLICE. John Williams was yesterday arrested and taken before Justice Blair, charged with assaulting and threatening the life of Margaret Williams. In default of security he was committed to prison. Dianah Stewart, a colored woman, charged with stealing a shawl, the property of Charlotte Jackson, was yesterday committed to prison by Justice Barnard. John Clark, charged with assaulting and beating George Stormbergen, was brought before Justice Gorsuch—giving security for his appearance, he was released.—Daniel Bell, charged with threatening the life of George Stormbergen, was also brought before the same justice, and released on security.

DROWNED. The Patriot of yesterday states that a free colored man, belonging to the sloop Champion, lying at Bowly's wharf, from Centreville, Queen Anne's County, while walking this morning on a plank which extended from the sloop to the wharf, fell into the water—he arose only once, when the attempt to rescue him failed; and the body was not recovered for nearly half an hour. Dr. S. COLLINS was in attendance soon after the raising of the body, and applied the appropriate modes for resuscitation, but owing to the length of time he was under water, without effect.

FIRE. A fire broke out in St. Louis on the 29th ult. It commenced in the grocery store of Mr. Evans, on the north side of Market street, and, before its progress was arrested, entirely destroyed two or three wooden tenements. The principal sufferers are Mr. Evans, grocer, Mr. Hubert, upholsterer and cabinet maker, Turner, Sloper & Rimmer, milliners, D. Gazier, hatter, Chauvin & Maxfield, painters. A confectionary store adjoining, and the Exchange Coffee House, were materially injured.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS OF THE U. S. BANK.

At a meeting of the Stockholders of the Bank of the U. States, held, by adjournment, (from Monday, the 5th of April) in the Banking House, on Thursday, 8th of April, 1841.

Sammel Brock, Esq. the Chairman, called the meeting to order at 10 o'clock. Before the reading of the journal of the former meeting, the chairman stated that there were six vacancies in the Board of Directors, including Thomas Dunlap, Esquire, the late President, who had resigned. And to supply these vacancies, the following named gentlemen had been elected directors:

- William Drayton, Joshua Lippincott, J. M. Claghorn, William Rawle, George Thomas, John Cooper.

And that WILLIAM DRAYTON has been elected President. The journal of the previous meeting was then read. Richard Price stated that his name was on the printed ticket in January last, without his consent, that he did not accept the appointment, and had resigned.

On motion, Mr. Price's remarks were ordered to be entered on the journal.

Mr. Lippincott, from the committee of investigation, then reported a series of resolutions, which, after sundry amendments, were adopted, as follows:

The committee to which was referred the resolution of the stockholders of the 5th inst., directing that such measures should be reported as were deemed necessary to relieve the Bank from its present embarrassments, respectfully present to the meeting the following resolutions for its adoption:

- 1. Resolved, That the interests of the stockholders will be best promoted by preserving the corporate existence of the institution.
2. Resolved, That the change which has taken place in the administration of the Bank, meets the approbation of this meeting, and it is believed, will revive the confidence of the community.
3. Resolved, That it is expedient that the name of the institution should be changed, and its nominal capital reduced to fourteen millions of dollars, valuing cash share at forty dollars.
4. Resolved, That the present committee be authorized to prepare, and cause to be presented to the Legislature, a memorial in the name of the stockholders, praying to be relieved from the residue of the bonds yet unpaid, from the obligation to make loans to the state, and from the penalties attached to suspension of specie payments, for a reasonable period of time, and for such modifications of its charter as are indicated by these resolutions.
5. Resolved, That a part of the assets of the Bank be placed in the hands of trustees as a pledge for the purpose of securing the ultimate payment of its post notes, circulation and deposits, in the event of an arrangement being made with the other city and county banks to receive its notes in payment and on deposit; and in case such arrangements should fail to be made, then in trust for the security of the present circulation and deposits.
6. Resolved, That it is expedient that the banking operations should be confined to the bank in this city, and that its agencies should be no longer maintained than is necessary for the interests of the institution.
7. Resolved, That the discounts of the Bank shall be confined to business paper, and that no permanent loans shall be made on stock or other security, and that no loans shall be made except at the board on the regular discount day.
8. Resolved, That the salary of the President of the Bank shall be reduced to five thousand dollars, and that a suitable reduction shall be made in the salaries of its other officers and agents.
9. Resolved, That no Director shall be permitted to become the surety for any officer of the Bank.
10. Resolved, That for the future no proxies shall be valid unless dated and executed within sixty days before the day of each general election of Directors, and such proxy or proxies shall be acknowledged before a magistrate or notary, and that no officer, director, or clerk of the Bank shall be allowed to vote a proxy.
Mr. J. M. Kennedy moved the following resolution, which was adopted:
Resolved, That when this meeting shall adjourn, it will adjourn to meet on the first Tuesday in May next, unless sooner called by the officers of the meeting, who are hereby authorized to make the call.
The following resolution, the result of some discussion and modification, was adopted:
Resolved, That the report of the investigating Committee be referred to the Board of Directors, to ascertain whether any legal responsibilities have been incurred by the officers of this Bank; and if so, that they cause those responsibilities to be enforced by law.
Mr. Caleb Cope moved the following, which was unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That the Clerks of the Banks be released from the obligation of their oaths and affirmations of secrecy, touching the affairs of the Bank, in their communications with the Directors, and the Committees of Investigation.

SUPPOSED MURDER. A man named Peter Wilson, near Camden, N. J. has been taken up on suspicion of having murdered his brother. All the circumstances connected with the affair are of the most suspicious character. He is supposed to have cut his brother's throat with a razor, and afterwards set fire to the house in which he resided and burnt him up. The accused has been committed to jail for trial.

PROFITABLE BUSINESS. We are informed, says a Philadelphia journal, that the receipts on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Rail Road, for the months of February and March last, were near one hundred thousand dollars! The receipts for March alone exceeded fifty-five thousand dollars. This looks like making dividends.

On receipt of the melancholy intelligence of the President's death at Richmond, (Va.) on Sunday evening, the public bell was tolled until night, and, in accordance with the action of the Governor and Council, was continued from sunrise to sunset on Monday, and one hundred guns fired at regular intervals throughout the day.

ANOTHER BANK GONE. The Union Bank, says the Mississippi, may now be set down as a perfect brandon case, its last and most respectable prop has fallen—Mr. Grayson, the Cashier, is about resigning, and all the clerks but two have quit the concern—they are right!

BALTIMORE MARKET, April 9, 1841.

Flour. There has been some improvement in Howard-st. Flour since our last quotations. Sales of good common brands have been made at $4.62. At this rate some two or three thousand barrels have changed hands. The stock in the market at present, however, is rather light. There has also been an advance in the wagon price; we quote at $4.50. The transactions in City Mills Flour have been limited—last sales we quote at $4.62. There have been some arrivals of Sasquehanna Flour, and sales made at from $4.56 to $4.63.

Grain. The transactions in Grain have been small. We quote Maryland red wheat at 90a 100 cts., according to quality. In whites there has been nothing doing. We quote Md. Rye at 49a50 cents. The last sales of Md. white Corn were made at 46 cts., and yellow do. 49a50. Oats are quite scarce. Virginia may be quoted at 25a26 cents. Md. do. 29a31 cts., as per quality. Timothy Seed, $3. In Cloverseed there has been but little doing. We quote at $4.50a $4.56.

Provisions. This market for the past week has been rather active, though with but little variation in prices. Baltimore Mess Pork continues at $12.50; No. 1 $10.50, and prime from 8 to $8.50. Sales of Western Bacon have taken place at 6a6c. per lb.; Hams do. 8a9c.; Middlings 6c. and Shoulders 6c.; prime Balt. cured Hams we quote at 10c. and Sides do. 8c. Western Lard, No. 1, 8c. for cash. There is hardly anything doing in Western Butter. No. 1, 2 and 3 in mixed lots have been sold at from 6 to 7c. In Glades there is nothing doing.

Cattle. This market is inactive. Nothing doing to warrant a fair quotation. Whiskey. We quote hhd. at 20c. and bbl. 22c. The wagon price exclusive of the bbl. is 18c., which is a small reduction.

For the Baltimore Clipper. Messrs. EDITORS: Thinking it due to the honor of our city, as well as to give the Ladies an opportunity of manifesting their grief in common with our fellow-citizens, for the decease of our late President, I would suggest that the Ladies wear black Crape Veils for the space of six months. It will be acting in unison with our sister cities, and the gross neglect of our Mayor (I can call it by no softer name,) to convene the Councils for the purpose of making suitable arrangements, will, if my suggestion be adopted, in part obliterate and ameliorate the otherwise seeming indifference of our citizens.

I would also recommend the citizens generally to wear crape on their left arm for thirty days. Yours, SYMPATHY. [We publish the suggestions of "Sympathy," though we have no doubt that measures will be taken by the military, fire companies and citizens at large, to give a public demonstration of feeling on the late melancholy occurrence. The patriotic spirit of the ladies of Baltimore will dispose them to participate in any manner which may be deemed advisable, in the expression of regret for the loss which the country has sustained in the death of General Harrison.]

Messrs. EDITORS.—Through the medium of your paper, I would respectfully recommend to the Ladies of Baltimore, the propriety of their wearing black kid gloves as a mark of respect to the memory of our beloved and lamented President, William Henry Harrison.

MARY. We give the above for the consideration of the Ladies. We admire not only the name of Mary, but the truly patriotic spirit of her communication. The old lamented Hero had a temple in the secret shrine of many female hearts, and now since he has retired from earth, crowned with laurels, we doubt not but his name will live long in the pure paradise of their remembrance. Ladies, they will be done.

The following gentlemen, as PALL-BEARERS, were designated to represent the several States and Territories which are attached to their names at the Funeral of the late PRESIDENT: R. Cuts, Esq. for Maine; Hon. C. Cushing, Massachusetts; W. B. Lloyd, Esq. Connecticut; Gen. John Granger, New York; M. Willing, Esq. Pennsylvania; David Hoffman, Esq. Maryland; Hon. E. D. White, N. Carolina; Gen. D. L. Clinch, Georgia; Col. Rogers, Tennessee; M. Durand, Esq. Louisiana; Ander'n. Miller, Esq. Mississippi; Dr. Perrine, Alabama; A. W. Lyon, Esq. Arkansas; Hon. J. D. Doty, Wisconsin; Hon. W. B. Carter, Iowa; John J. B. Moore, New Haven; M. St. C. Clarke, Esq. R. I.; Hon. Hiland Hall, Vermont; Hon. G. C. Washington, N. Jersey; Hon. A. Naudain, Delaware; Major Camp, Virginia; John Carter, Esq. South Carolina; Thos. Crittenden, Esq. Kentucky; Mr. Graham, Ohio; Gen. Robert Hanna, Indiana; D. G. Garney, Esq. Illinois; Major Russel, Missouri; Gen. Howard, Michigan; Hon. C. Downing, Florida; R. Smith, Esq., District Columbia.

We regret to learn that further intelligence has been received from Pensacola which confirms the melancholy fears that have been entertained of the unfortunate fate of Mr. George Johnson, late of this place, his wife, and wife's sister, ladies from Prince George's county, Maryland. There is no longer a doubt but that the vessel in which they sailed from St. Joseph's for Pensacola encountered a fearful gale, was wrecked and that all on board perished.—Alex. Gaz.

Dr. Duncan Baird, Esq., aged 82 years, of Fayetteville, N. C., suddenly fell and expired on the 12th ult. The Observer says he could boast of no other man in the country could. He had just completed taking the census of the county for the fifth time. He had performed that duty in 1800, 1810, 1820, 1830 and 1840.

OFFICIAL. We are authorized to say that, under the pressure of the public business, increased by recent events, as well as by the approach of an extra session of Congress, the President finds it indispensable to make some arrangement for the employment of his time. He proposes, therefore, to see his fellow-citizens, who may wish to call on him, from 10 to 12 o'clock every day in the week, except Sunday.—Nat. Int.

SHIPPING. The Philadelphia Ledger of yesterday states that there is more shipping in that port at present than there has been for some years past at any one period of time. As these vessels do not come here with empty holds, it is to be presumed that business commences to stir.

ARMORY INDEPENDENT BLUES.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 8, 1841. At a meeting of the INDEPENDENT BLUES, held at their Armory on Thursday Evening, the following preamble and resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted: Whereas, It has pleased the all-wise Ruler of the Universe, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, to remove from the earth and vegetation of the United States, and disastrous Chief Magistrate of the United States, and whereas, while it becomes us to bow with deep humility to the inscrutable decrees of Providence, it is nevertheless our duty to testify our respect for the memory of the deceased, and the exalted station which he held in the nation, therefore,

Resolved, That the Armory of the Independent Blues be clothed in mourning for the space of sixty days, as a mark of the regret we feel for the loss sustained by the nation in the sudden and afflictive dispensation which has called from among us General WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON, President of the United States.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this corps, that a public demonstration, for the purpose of honoring the illustrious man, by procession, &c., should be made by the citizens of Baltimore.

Resolved, That the several Military Corps, Fire Companies, and other Associations of this city, be invited to take the subject into consideration at an early day as convenient.

Resolved, That a Committee consisting of Captain Lilly, Lieut. Ford, Serg't. Robinson, Messrs. Hufnand and A. S. Ford, be appointed to confer with similar committees from other Associations, to make arrangements for such demonstration.

Resolved, That his honor the Mayor be respectfully requested to convene the Council, that they may take such action as to them would appear just and right, for testifying their feelings upon the death of the President of the United States, and that this resolution, attested by the Chairman and Secretary, be forthwith transmitted to him.

On motion, it was further resolved, that the proceedings of the meeting be published. RICHARD LILLY, Capt. ap10-11 J. D. REID, Sec. pro. tem.

Baltimore, April 9, 1841.

JOSEPH SMITH, President of the Baltimore Typographical Society.

Resolved, That the undersigned, members of the Baltimore Typographical Society, earnestly request an early meeting of their body, in order to take into consideration the propriety of passing resolutions expressive of the mournful bereavement they have met with, in common with the whole American community in the death of WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON, late President of the United States; and also make such arrangements as may be necessary to join any procession that may take place on account of the same. H. C. Haber, Wm. K. Boye, Jr., John F. Cook, Wm. R. Hoyle, Wm. Holliday, Wm. H. Feak, Wm. B. Sherwood, Thos. C. Pinkard, Rufus B. Gallup, J. P. Coleman.

In compliance with the above request, a meeting of the Baltimore Typographical Society will be held on THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 10, at the Society's Room, Military Hall, at 8 o'clock.

In view of the subject to be deliberated upon, (that of an expression of the feeling of the Society, at the sudden and lamented demise of the late President of the United States,) the undersigned are assured of a full attendance of the members to participate in the proceedings. JOSEPH SMITH, Pres. Balt. Typ. Society. ap10-11 Thos. D. EULTZER, Sec'y.

MISSIONARY FAIR.

The Sewing Society of the Society of the Presbytery of the City of Baltimore, respectfully announce, that their Annual Fair for the sale of fancy and useful articles will commence on MONDAY EVENING NEXT, the 12th inst. in the Lecture Rooms of the Church, at the corner of East Baltimore and Lloyd streets, and be continued throughout the following days and evenings of Tuesday and Wednesday, or until the whole of the articles are disposed of.

From the arrangements made, it is confidently expected, that this sale will be more than usually attractive, and as the society have in this way sustained a missionary in India, for a number of years past, and pledged for his permanent support, it is earnestly hoped that the present fair will be promptly and generously responded to by all who are friendly to the cause of missions—especially as it is known to all who read the religious publications of the day that HENRY B. WILSON has at the present moment, in addition to his other talents, upwards of one hundred names of persons, under whose care who, if the means of education be now extended to them, may become instrumental in spreading the knowledge of salvation throughout that vast and benighted Empire. "Come over, therefore, and help us." ap10-11

Washington Junior Temperance Society.

This Society will hold a Meeting in Monument Square on SUNDAY EVENING, 11th inst. Young men and the public in general, are respectfully invited to attend. By order, WM. GEO. HECKROTTE, Fin. Sec. N. B. The meeting will be addressed by several distinguished friends of the cause. ap10-11

NOTICE.

Hereafter, the regular meetings of the WASHINGTON TEMPERANCE SOCIETY will be held at Mr. REESE'S School Rooms, corner of Hanover and Camden streets, instead of Neely's. The above Room was formerly occupied by the Washington Society. ap10
