

BALTIMORE CLIPPER.

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 19, 1841.

OUR IDEAS OF INDEPENDENCE, NEUTRALITY, A NEUTRAL PAPER, &c. Independence, as regards truth and patriotism, is among the noblest of the Christian virtues; and he who has it not, is a crocheting slave, subject to the caprice of an overbearing world—a rattling man, whom to look upon is repulsive even to the most sensitive and forgiving sympathy. Much has been said and written in reference to the independence of the press, of politicians and of men in general,—more, indeed, than has ever been put properly into practice. We often find that those who talk most and boast the loudest of this admirable quality, are farthest from its enjoyment. Their opinions are frequently based upon uncomprehensible prejudices and their minds are chained down by contracted and illiberal sentiments, which do really seem to preclude even the possibility of investigation. An eclipse overshadows the mental eye, which in revered language, causes them to "grope their way in darkness," or to continue a life time, seeing only "through a glass darkly."

Independence, as we understand it, invites free discussion, opens the avenues to truth, "gives honor to whom honor is due," despises an attempt to shackle in any way the arms of liberty, allows thought to glide smoothly on in its own channel and always observes a strict adherence to prudence. It must be admitted that there are two sides to all questions, and he who would advocate openly the leading features of both, is not only a bad logician, but a fool, a knave and a hypocrite. The automaton trumpeter can be made, by touching a certain spring, to perform "Hail Columbia," and in the next breath, in like manner, greet the ear with "God save the king." This by some would be called a good figure by which to represent independence; and we should agree with them, if that quality could exist without either motive or volition. No man can be either independent, a good member of society, or in fact honest, who smother the pure, legitimate conversions of his own breast, for the purpose of giving place to those diametrically adverse to experience, common sense and mature judgment.

A strange, incoherent and contemptible idea seems to have entered the minds of many relative to neutrality, the spirit of neutral papers and the manner in which they should be conducted. There are those who cry out for independence in such journals, who, when an opinion is advanced contrary to their own, think that therefore the editor has, like a wild goose in a fog, lost his course. We would be illiberal in not allowing such individuals to think as seemeth to themselves best; this is their prerogative, and upon equivoque argument, the same is ours. Can an independent man shrink from truth, when virtuously convinced that the promulgation of that truth may redound to the benefit of his fellows? Shall he withhold the proper encomiums due to merit because, perchance, some sycophant political demagogue may choose to construe them into partisan measures? We answer emphatically "no." There is no independence but that which spurns hypocrisy and springs from a heart conscious of moral rectitude.

There are those who, from grovelling motives, would, if they could, trammel the freedom of the neutral press by throwing in its way the rubbish of modern party politics. But in this they are happily foiled; for minds so small have influence only commensurate with their own meagreness. It should be the object, and must be, of every honest, respectable journal, to give such intelligence as may tend to general good. And because this thing may be considered political, or that, does it follow that the reader therefore is to be kept in ignorance? Or if one man or set of men be engaged in something positively derogatory to the standing, virtues and reputation of a whole community, is the neutral press to have its voice hushed, because in repudiating there may be an unfounded suspicion of political bias? Out upon such stuff! "Independence now and independence forever"—aye, and the neutral press the one where it is to be found in its nearest proximity to perfection.

The National Intelligencer of Saturday states that the President has taken up his residence in the Mansion assigned to his official station, and, at the appointed hours, has received his friends there during the last two days. Among the visitors who on Friday paid their respects to him were ex-President Adams, and the Hon. Mr. Southard, President pro tem. of the Senate, now on a visit to that city.

Mrs. Harrison, junior, and her Sons, with Mr. Copeland and Mr. Henry Harrison, nephew and grand-nephew of the late President, still remain at the Presidential Mansion. Colonel Chambers and Colonel Todd left this city a few days ago.

COL. ALEXANDER McLEOD, it is stated, is the eldest of a family of eight, all of whom, at different periods, with their parents, emigrated to Canada from the county of Forfarshire, in Scotland. McKeuzie and a colleague of his, came from the same county. McLeod was under-sheriff of the district of Niagara, and on the breaking out of the rebellion, was chosen colonel of the volunteers. A younger brother, Augustus, was one of the volunteers, who encountered and defeated McKenzie and his partisans before Toronto at the first outbreak of the rebellion.

PUBLIC JUSTICE. A writer in Saturday's Republican, who assumes this imposing signature, has forgotten, that public justice cannot be promoted by the infliction of private injustice. He has thought proper to represent the senior editor of this paper as "a lurking whig," and to charge him with having said, whilst editor of the Chronicle, that "he would prefer the Devil to general Jackson as president." The senior editor has never been either "a lurking whig," or a skulking one. There is no man in this community whose political sentiments have been more openly avowed, and more generally known. His position as a writer for the Clipper is that of a neutral; but as a private individual he will always take the liberty to express his political preferences. He is not aware that he ever did, upon any occasion say, that "he would prefer the Devil to general Jackson," because he never has desired to have any intimacy with his Satanic Majesty or to become his subject. He eschews "the Devil and all his works," and would even assist to save the author of "Public Justice" from the fatal grasp of Old Nick. In whatever the editor has said of the Mayor of Baltimore, he has been respectful, if not over-polite. He bears his honor, personally, no ill-will; but shall take the liberty to judge and to speak of his official conduct according to the honest convictions of his mind.

NEW INVENTION. Some Yankee down east has invented a missile for killing whales, which it is supposed will much lessen the risk attendant upon the whale fishery. The harpoon strikes the whale in the common way, and holds him so sure as it hits him, for it parts its prongs the moment it strikes the black skin, so difficult to penetrate. The two portions of the barbed instrument open by means of certain simple springs which operate at the moment of contact, and thus render it next to impossible for the rope to part from the whale—the lance cannot draw out, as it is apt to do with those now in use. But in addition to this, in the act of entering the whale a shell is sent into the flesh of the monster, which will almost kill him instantly.

THE SHERIFF OF MORGAN COUNTY ASCENDS. Charles F. Alden, sheriff of Morgan Co., who are informed by the Ohio Whig Standard of the 1st inst., has decamped, leaving his sureties and creditors to bear the loss of some fifteen hundred to five thousand dollars. He wrote a letter to his wife which was mailed from Columbus, in which he said he was going to Kingston, in Upper Canada; but it is generally believed, among his friends, that he has gone to Texas.

Our correspondent who is so tenacious about the typographical error which accidentally occurred in one line of his poetry, and in one word only, is informed that he can correct it by taking a pen or pencil and going to each of our twenty thousand subscribers, then and there erasing it, and substitute what seems to himself more appropriate.

SHIPWRECK. It is stated in the Norfolk Beacon of the 15th inst. that the schr. Patriot, Cook, of Providence, ten days from Boston in ballast, bound to Bush River, (Chesapeake bay) went ashore at the False Cape, near the Wash woods, on Monday morning last, in a heavy blow, crew saved. The vessel had not bilged when the captain left the beach.

FIRE. A fire occurred in Cincinnati on the 14th, which consumed two houses. While the firemen were endeavoring to extinguish the flames, another occurred over the canal between Third and Fourth streets, burning to the ground the large flour mill of the Messrs. Fagins, and destroying a large amount of property.

RELIGIOUS REVIVAL. The Frederick Herald says: "We are pleased to learn that a considerable revival has taken place in the Lutheran Church in this place. From twenty to thirty persons were added to the number on Sunday last."

FISH. The Alexandria Gazette says: "More shall have been caught this season, at the Fishing Landings on the Potomac, than usual; but the quantity of Herrings (good) has not been so great. The fish, however, have all been very fine and large."

THE MOON. An English paper gives the result of Dr. Robinson's observations on the appearance of the moon, as seen through Lord Oxmantown's immense telescope. One of its mountains is nearly 17,000 feet in height above the plain from which it rises. Generally, however, they are about 5,000 feet.

GEN. SCOTT arrived at Rochester on Friday evening in the railroad cars, on his way from Buffalo, East. We regret to learn that the General is in a delicate state of health, not being able to leave the house during his stay in Buffalo.

NOMINATION. The Whig Convention, composed of delegates from Baltimore city, Annapolis and Anne Arundel county, assembled at Elliott's Mills on Saturday last, and nominated John P. Kennedy and Alexander Randall, Esqrs. as candidates for Congress from the fourth Congressional district. The election is to take place on the 17th May next.

CREDITABLE FEELING. The Kingston (U.C.) Chronicle of the 10th inst. reached us in mourning, in consequence of the death of President Harrison. This bespeaks a highly creditable feeling on the part of our neighbors, which we take pleasure in noticing.

FINED. George Spalding, a schoolmaster at Lowell, was the other day mulcted in a fine of $10 and costs, for overwhipping one of his scholars, on whom he inflicted from 40 to 60 blows with a leather strap.

Anne Arundel County Court commences its regular term this day at Annapolis.

ORDER. The Aid and Assistant Marshals of the FUNERAL PROCESSION in honor of the late President of the U. States will assemble at the Hall of the Mechanical Fire Company, S. Calvert street, on TUESDAY EVENING, 20th instant, at 7 1/2 o'clock. It is expected that they will be punctual in their attendance.

CHAS. M. KEYSER, Chief Marshal.

The following gentlemen have been appointed Assistant Marshals.

SPECIAL AIDS.
Col. S. Hillen, Jr. S. T. Thompson.
Saml. K. George, Capt. Joseph Willey.
Capt. W. H. Watson, Capt. J. H. Millikin.

ASSISTANT MARSHALS.
Col. Owen Bouldin, Capt. C. Howard, Capt. J. O. Law, J. J. Turner, Lot Eassey, C. H. Pitts, J. H. Lee, David Cushing, Col. J. E. Stansbury, O. C. Tiffany, C. H. Armistead, D. A. Piper, W. H. Norris, Levi Fahnestock, Col. W. F. Giles, John H. O'Donnell.

Chief Marshals of the Fire Department, Order of Odd Fellows, and Temperance Societies, will attend the above meeting.

THE PROGRAMME OF THE PROCESSION is in a state of forwardness, and will be published on Thursday next if the various Associations and Societies report before noon on Wednesday to the Chief Marshal, which they are earnestly requested to do.

BETROTHED VS. MOTHER. A singular and painful litigation has recently been in progress at Boston; one which to all kindly hearts must cause regret, although none can fail to sympathize with the feelings in which it originated. The suit was in replevin—brought by a mother to obtain possession of a watch and portrait formerly belonging to her dead son. The defendant was a young lady to whom the son was betrothed, and it was clearly proved that the watch and picture had been given to her by the deceased just before embarking for the voyage on which he was lost. The verdict was in favor of the betrothed; but one hardly knows whether the most to rejoice with her, or grieve with the mother, at this issue of a contest for the sad memorials so highly prized and so eagerly desired by them both.

SPECIE. The New York Express states that a few days since there was a general call for specie among the banks of that city, and a consequent shifting of balances. The call commenced with the Bank of Commerce, and before it was finished the specie drafts went through all the others. Those most in debt, as a matter of course, had to pay up. This call did not arise out of any demand abroad, or from other states, for there is no demand of this sort, but merely to settle up. There is now no arrangement of interest between the several institutions, therefore there is no benefit to a bank to let other banks be much in their debt. The occasional settlements that are made, are highly necessary to keep things in a sound and healthy condition.—To pay is as necessary as to receive, and banks as well as individuals are kept strict by short reckonings.

DISTRESSING. The Columbia Spy of the 17th, states that on the 16th inst. a hat with some papers belonging to Mr. Christian Yeansh of this borough, was found floating on the river near the bridge. He was in a melancholy state for a few days previous to Thursday night, at which time he left his own house, and has not since been seen. The supposition is that he has put an end to his existence by drowning.

It is stated in the Wheeling Gazette of 14th inst., that Mr. Curry, the distinguished individual who robbed the Ithica, N. Y. Bank, left that city on Sunday last for New York. He was in fine spirits.

The same paper states, that the river is in fine navigable order, there is about fourteen feet water in the channel, and rising, the arrivals and departures of steamboats have been numerous.

DETACHMENT. It is stated in the Norfolk Beacon that a detachment of U. S. Marines, 78 in number, under the command of Lieut. Maddox, arrived there on the 15th, in the steamer Columbia from Washington. A part of them are intended for the Delaware, and the balance as a guard for the Navy Yard.

A TUMBLE. A preacher in Boston went to sleep whilst sitting in his pulpit a few Sundays since—he fell against the door of the pulpit, and then tumbled down into the aisle, but fortunately woke up without sustaining any serious injury. This is a strong admonition against sleeping in church.

ATTEMPT TO DROWN. A middle aged woman attempted to drown herself on Saturday afternoon last, by jumping into the Falls. She found the experiment, however, to work badly, and cried out lustily for help, after getting a cool dip, which was procured and her life saved.

ALARM OF FIRE. The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon was false. A number of individuals, whom we hope for the sake of honor, were not firemen, collected in Market st. at the corner of Gay, and indulged in a disgraceful riot.

PARTRIDGE SHOOTING. We take pleasure in adding our testimony that the painting referred to is one of peculiar merit and beauty.

NEW ORLEANS PAPER. We learn from the New Orleans papers that Gen. Hamilton has been successful in negotiating a loan, which has been for some time talked of, for the republic of Texas.

ST. LOUIS PENNANT. We see it stated in the St. Louis Pennant that Mr. Koch of that city has sold the bones of the animal which he calls the Missourium, for the sum of fifty thousand dollars.

MARRIED. On the 14th of February last, by the Rev. John Bear, John H. KURTZ to Miss HARRIET ANN ELLISTON, a 1 of this city.

DIED. On Friday morning, 16th inst. DAVID LEXREW, aged 32 years. On the 8th inst. JAMES WATSON, youngest son of Benjamin W. and Elizabeth Meredith, aged 2 years and ten months. At Georgetown, D. C. on the 16th inst. THOMAS HYDE, aged 74 years.
