S. CHRISTIAN COMMISSION, 77 West Baltimore street, Baltimore, May 16, 1864. | hetal. -TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SUFFERING SOLDIERS:- The recent terrible battles in Virginia have thrown upon the services of the i Christian Commission a large number of wounded soldiers who have been received into our hos-2 pitals and claim such ministrations at our hands as their condition demands. The hospitals are in the receipt of the sufferers every day. The arrivals from the battle-fields are as frequent as the means of transportation admit, Among the wounded are many of our fellow-citizens of various parts of Maryland-most of them of the city of Baltimore. Some of these men are very badly wounded and require immediate and constant attention. Over two hundred delegates, a full proportion of whom are from our own city, have been sent with large quantities of hospital stores as near to with large of intities of hospital stores as near to the scenes of conflict as could be reached. The provision for the supplies sent by the delegates have compelled the committee to at vance nearly four thousand dollars to fill the c ders, and purchases have to be made every day to meet the demands constantly upon us. need all the aid that a generous public may afford us, and shall be happy to receive donations | dyspepsia. of money and of stores of any kind Good wines, sugar, jellies, dried fruit, can fruit, rags, bandages, lint, and under clothing SOAPI SOAPII SOAPIII generally, and all such articles as are required by the sick and suffering.
