Sarah Taylor, Executive Director of Commission

P R O C E E D I N G S

1
2 MR. BUTANIS: Okay, this is a hearing of the 3 State Critical Areas Commission. The panel for Denton,
4 in attendance tonight from the Commission, are Shepard
5 Krech from Talbot County, Steele Phillips from 6 Dorchester County, Tom--are you subbing--should I
7 announce you?

8 MR. JARVIS: I'm substituting for Wayne Cole.

9 MR. BUTANIS: Tom Jarvis of Caroline County
10 sitting in for Wayne Cole, secretary of the Department
11 of Agriculture, and myself, Victor Butanis, from Harford
12 County. This hearing is being conducted pursuant to--I'm 13 not sure if it's Section 8-18-03 or whatever it is, of 14 the Natural Resources Article.

15 The hearing has been duly advertised,
16 scheduled to start at 6 p.m. I note that one, possibly 17 two, people are here. We are here to take comment from 18 the public, however sparse that may be. Anybody wishing 19 to submit any written comments should send those 20 directly to Judge Solomon Liss, Chairman of the Critical 21 Areas Commission, in Annapolis. Sarah can give the 22 exact address. I don't have that off the top of my

1 head.

2 MS. TAYLOR: That's the Department of Natural
3 Resources, -- State Office Building, Annapolis,
4 Maryland 21401.

5 MR. BUTANIS: I should also note for the 6 record that Dr. Sarah Taylor, the Executive Director of 7 the Commission, is here. And, we will open the floor
8 for any public comment at this time. If anybody has 9 anything they wish to say or ask, we are here and we'll 10 endeavor to respond to anybody's questions. If you
11 don't wish to make any oral comments, you're certainly 12 free, as I previously said, to send written comments.

13 MR. JARVIS: On those written comments that 14 are sent in, there's a time limit on that.

15 MR. BUTANIS: That's right. The comments have 16 to be received, I believe, within one week of today, so 17 that would be by May 24th, 1988. So, I'll open the 18 floor if anybody has anything to say. Anybody? Going 19 once. Going twice. Gone. Okay, this public hearing is 20 now closed. Thank you all for attending and--

21 (Whereupon, this meeting was 22 . adjourned)
