REPORT OF THE NAVY BOARD

The following is a summary of the report of the Navy Board, dated 1st January 1900, in relation to the sinking of the battleship USS Oregon (BB-3) on 25th October 1898, during the Spanish-American War. The ship was sunk by a mine in the harbor of Manila, Philippines.

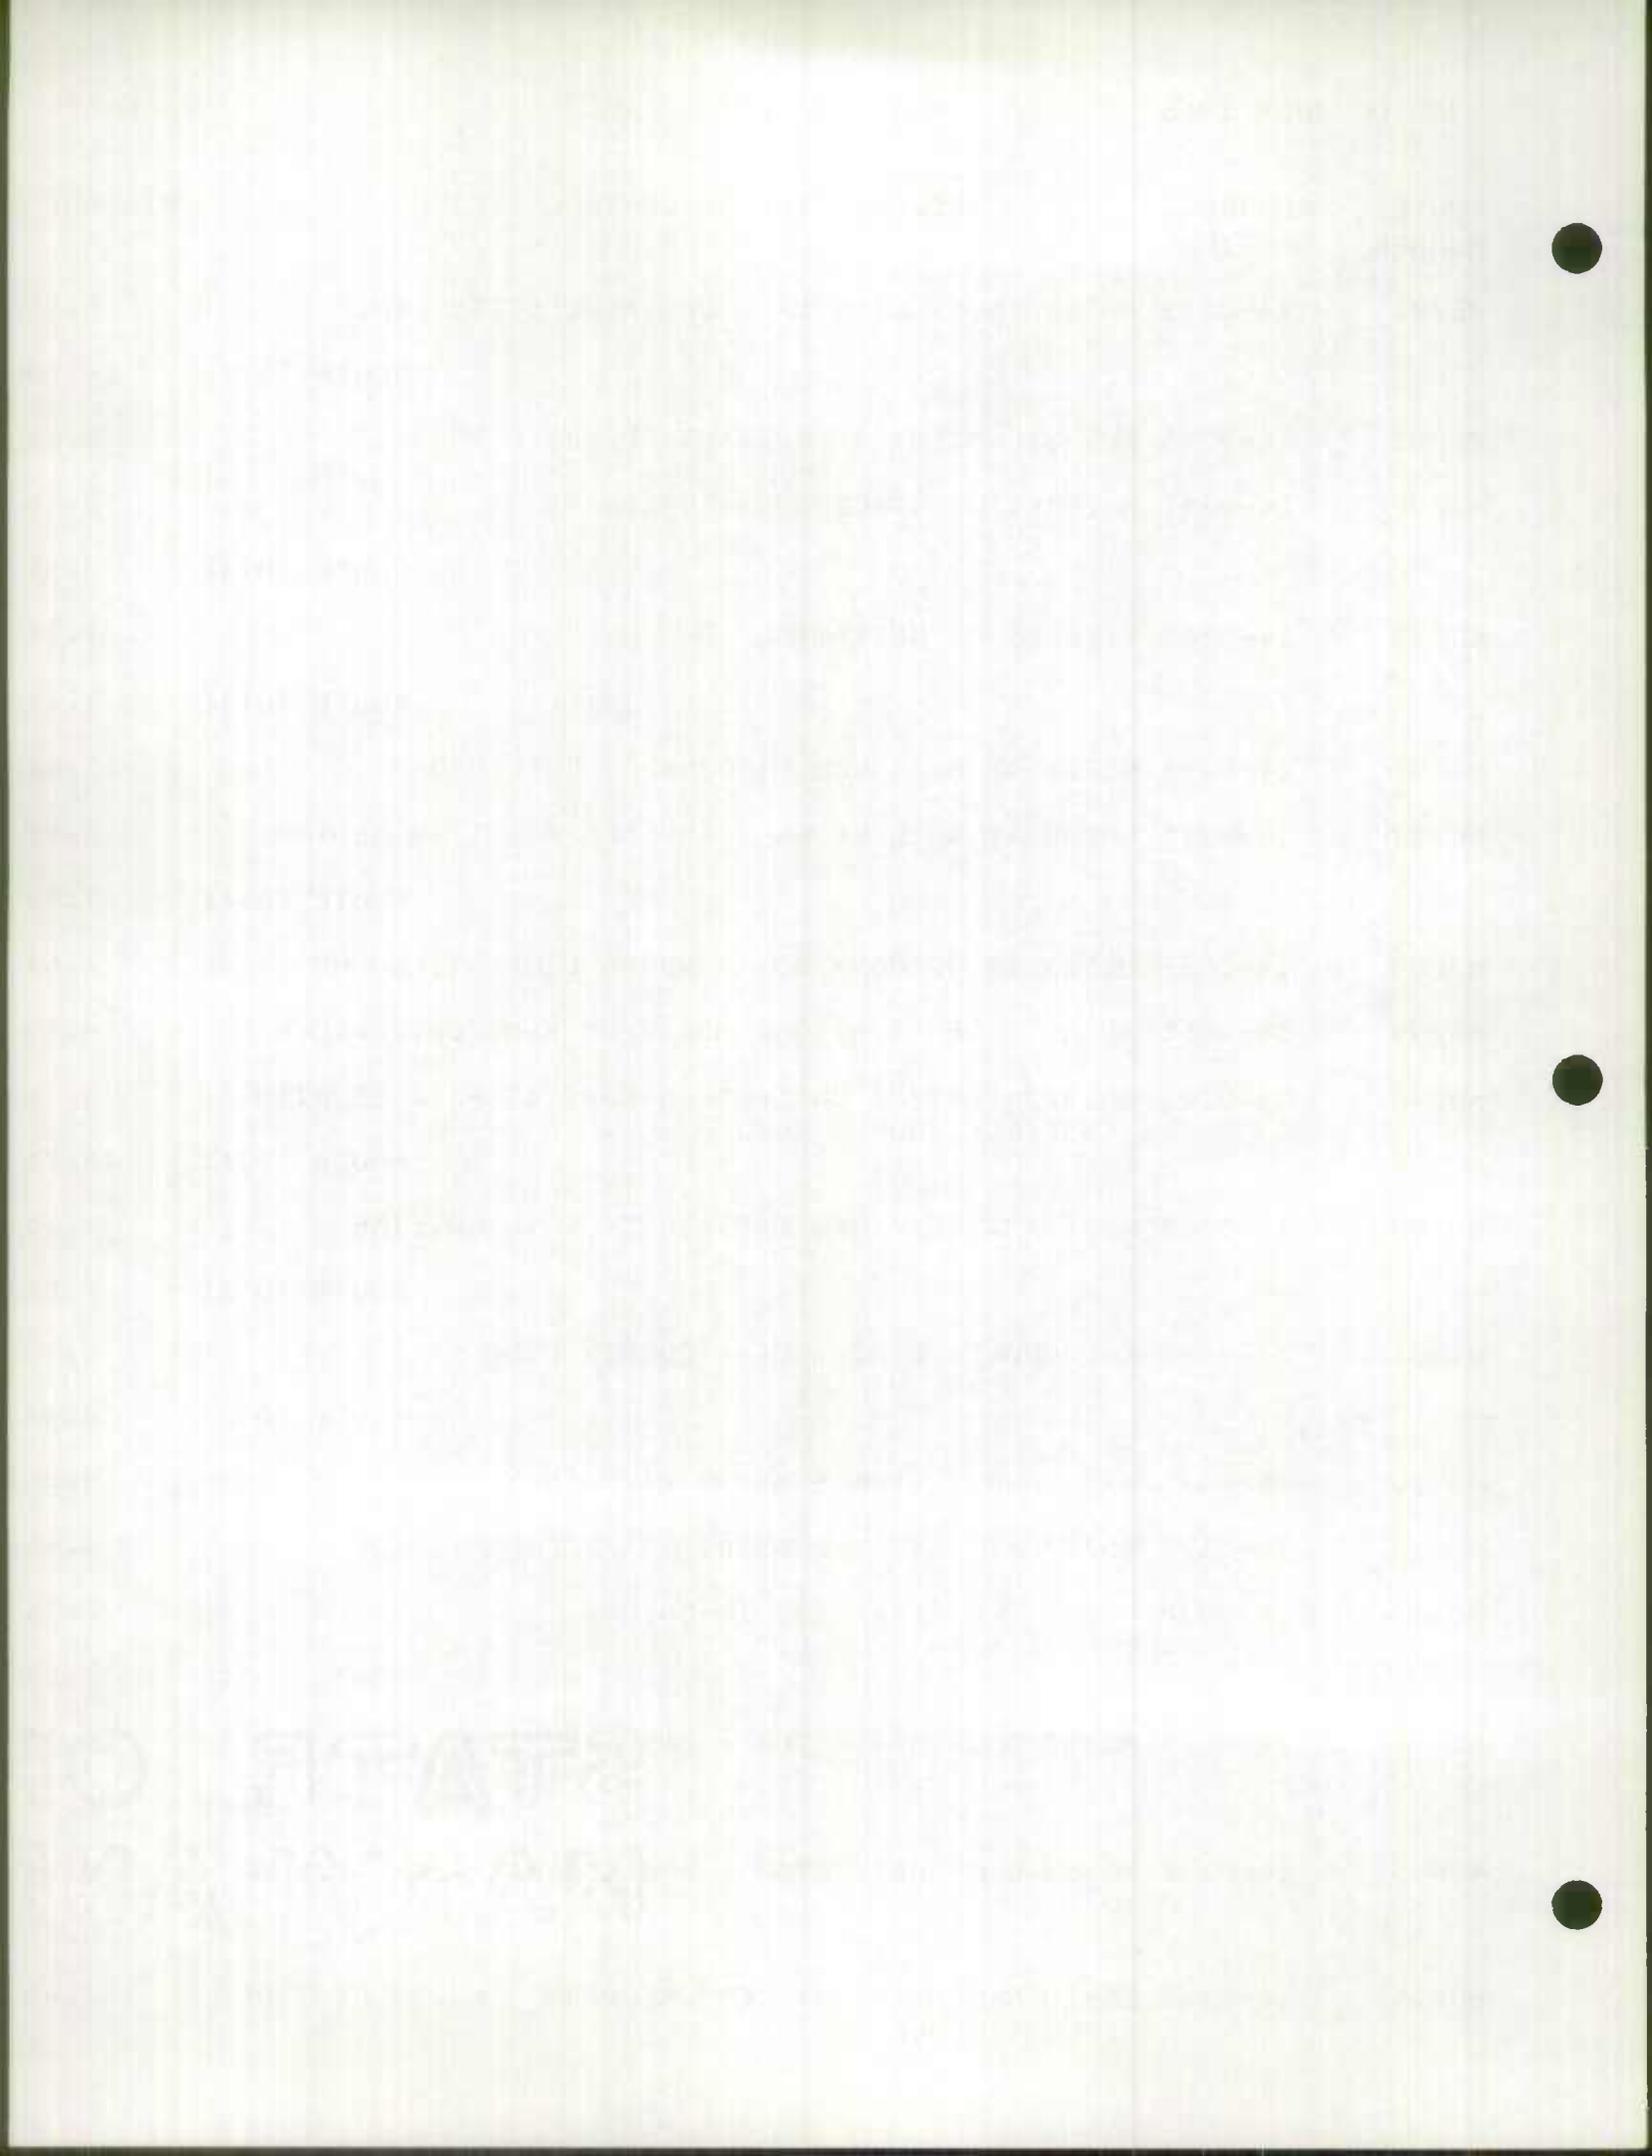

The report details the circumstances of the sinking, the actions of the crew, and the findings of the board. It concludes that the sinking was the result of a combination of factors, including the presence of a mine, the ship's position, and the actions of the crew.

The board recommended that the Navy should take steps to prevent such accidents in the future, including the improvement of mine detection and disposal procedures, and the training of crews in emergency procedures.
