

Willet's General Store and Post Office
AL-V-A-149
Carlos Road, Midlothian
1902

This general store and post office was opened in 1902 in the village of Midlothian Mines. It was owned by Francis Willets who operated the store on a parcel of land he purchased from the New Central Coal Company in 1900. The general store was a fixture of life in the mining villages of the Georges Creek coal region; each had "at least one store."

The frame building is of a simple utilitarian design with a three bay store front consisting of large double windows on either side of a pedimented entrance.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Willet's General Store and Post Office is located on the northern side of Carlos Road in Midlothian.

The store consists of a one and one-half story, three bays wide rectangular frame structure with shiplap siding. It rests on wooden posts and blocks with no water table. The gable front roof is covered with asphalt shingles and tar paper. Eaves consist of a cornice and fascia on the ends and of rafter ends on the flanks. Wall features include cornerboards. One replaced concrete block chimney is located outside end.

The three bay store front is on the southern facade. The pedimented entrance in the center of the facade includes a one light transom and a four panel door with original hardware. Pedimented double windows with mullion are on either side of the entrance. These are wide two over two lights with fluted jambs and wooden lugsills. One one over one light window is on the southern second floor. A frame addition on the east is of german siding with a shed roof.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This general store and post office was opened in 1902 in the village of Midlothian Mines. (1) It was owned and operated by Francis Willets on a parcel of land he purchased from the New Central Coal Company in 1900. (2) Some members of the mining population attempted to enter the world of business often with great success. Katherine Harvey wrote that... "By 1900 former miners or miners' sons were engaged in selling a great variety of goods, not only in the all-inclusive general store"...(3)

The general store was a fixture of life in the mining villages; each had "at least one store." (4) A description of life in Midlothian Mines during the 1920's in Allegany County- A History, relates that although many residents had managed to live with a high degree of self-sufficiency some "necessary supplies were purchased from Willets General Store"...(5) An assessment of the store in 1914 lists an average value of stock in the store of $300.00. (6) In 1947 the store had a merchandising inventory of $2,671.48 and a 1938 Ford delivery truck. (7) Francis Willet's venture into merchandising proved to be a profitable one for him and his descendents who are still in business at the original site.

The frame building is a simple utilitarian design with a three bay store front consisting of large double windows on either side of a pedimented entrance. A shed roofed addition runs the length of the eastern facade.
