

BA - 365

JOHN E. HEALEY - 18__ - South side of Fork Road, opposite terminus of Cherry Hill Road. Large Victorian house with a cupola, supposedly added by an owner who was a builder of lighthouses. The house was supposedly expanded from a log cabin that had served as the "Fork Meeting House" post office (established 1839). Shown in 1877 atlas as E.P. Porter residence.