

BA- 385

WILLIAM L. WILSON - 1804 - 10900 Harford Road, west side, 0.2 mile northeast of intersection with Factory Road. This house has been described as the dormitory for the Gunpowder Copper Works complex. Converted into a stable c. 1900 by J. Alexis Shriver. Reconverted to residential purposes later on. Stone house with wide shed dormer and overhanging front porch roof.