OREAD - 1904 - Upper Glencoe Road. This half-timbered, stuccoed house, is a survival of the college complex that Henry D. Perkey began to build in 1904 on the Filston Farm. Two-and-a-half stories, hip roof, central entrance porch with pillars, end-chimneys, shed dormers. Tudor style, half-timbering; windows in groups of two and three. Other school buildings were cleared away in the 1940s. Owner: William F. Gliss.
