

RA- 911

OLD COOPER FARM - Before 1850 - 1003 Old Barn Road, Hamlet Farms, (North side of Falls Road, north of Bunker Hill Road intersection, and across ravine from Cooper School, Parkton vicinity). Stone house covered with stucco. Shown on 1850 map as Tigo Cooper's and was spelled as Tego Cooper on 1877 atlas map, although Cooper had been killed in the Civil War. Shown as Thos. Armacost's in Bromley 1898 and 1915 atlases. Some of the land was sold to Board of School Commissioners to build Cooper's School. Small stone building under the stucco; 5-bay front; shingle roof; built in a narrow longish rectangular floor plan; no end openings; gable roof; ridge line runs from southwest to northeast; inside end-chimneys; house faces southeast toward Falls Road. Under restoration in 1978. Set on slight rise. Owners: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Evans.