

34-923

OVERLEA - c. 1853 - 108 Delrey Avenue. Two-story, square, rubble stone house with hip roof and dormers; three-story, square, fortress-like stone tower. Vaguely Italianate but mainly vernacular style. Built by the Rev. George W. Ebeling, pastor of Old Salem Lutheran Church. Dr. Ebeling conducted a boy's school there under the name Overlea College, from 1861-1895. Since then, the building has been a residence. Also called Mills house. A frame carriage house is used as a dwelling. Former owner: Gordon A. Hammersla. Owner: Henry A. Jorgenson (since 1979).