

P.A-948

MAYS CHAPEL AND CEMETERY - 1854 - 11901 Mays Chapel and Jenifer Roads, Lutherville vicinity. The first chapel, a frame and clapboard structure with gable roof and in vernacular style was built in 1854 on the south side of the present Mays Chapel Road "near the grove where the Rev. John Cornelius used to preach." The second chapel, a stone structure in Gothic style, with gable roof and belfry, was built in 1902 to provide more room. (See BA 1840). Chapel sold off and used (1979) as studio of John F. Burke. Owner: E. Owen Cockey.