

BA-1178

GUTTENBERGER'S STORE - 1910 - 400 Eastern Avenue, NE intersection with Mace Avenue. Two-stories, late Victorian frame house with cross-gable; gable roof, and Gothic peak window. Five bays wide, full-width front porch. Imbricated pattern shingling at attic level. Outer covering of white asbestos shingles. First grocery store in Essex community, built by Henry Guttenberger, carried on (1979) by John Guttenberger.