DODGE DEALERSHIP - ca. 1920 - 10800 Philadelphia Road, White Marsh. Frame, two-story commercial building of 1920s or 1930s still in use. The business was started as a repair garage in 1920s by Gilbert Smith, and expanded into Smith Motors, an auto showroom and dealership in the 1930s. Familiar sight on northwest corner of Cowenton Road and Route 7 just north of the terminus of Ebenezer Road.

WILLIAMS HOUSE - Before 1877 - 11026 Philadelphia Road, White Marsh. Spacious late Victorian double house laid out in an L-shape. Faces into side yard. Plain design. Yellow composition shingles. Gable roofed. Various cross gables. Poorly maintained externally just outside study area. Possibly the Samuel Pinkerton house shown in 1877 atlas plate of District 11. That house was just south of the now-extinct Star Tavern of the intersection of Joppa Road and Route 7. Apparently E. Finnake's property in 1915 (Tax Map 72, P129) (Deeds 1044:357)
