William Baldwin of Litchfield, Connecticut married the daughter of Daniel Lord, who first owned Elk Forge. In 1867 he came down and was impressed by the mill works and bought it, built a house and moved in to operate the business which operated until his death in the 1890's. The house is a plain stone building with a typical floorplan, having center hall flanked by two rooms on each side. It is three bays long and two bays deep and has a bay window on the southwest corner and the south east center bay. The sandstone building is entirely covered with ivy so that it is impossible to determine any details without removing the ivy. It does have an "A" roof and a gable on each facade. The main entrance has a stoop with cover. The interior trim is typical of the 1860's.
