STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Like each of the buildings on Charles Street the Nowland-Kirk House maintains the uniformity of rythm and scale along the street. Its form is almost identical to its neighbors.

The original lease for this simple house was (HHM 3/296) in the name of William Kirk and the lease mentions a house. Since the property was leased from the Bayard family, it has had only two owners. This has always been a single family dwelling, for working people.
