

CE - 1101
Mackie House
Near Fair Hill
Private

C. 1878-1890

The construction of this two and a half story cross-gabled stuccoed fieldstone farmhouse is dated by Mackie Family History and its absence on the 1877 Lake, Griffing, and Stevenson Atlas. Local oral traditions link the erection of this house along with the partial dismantling of <sup>the</sup> Mackie Brother's complex of workers' housing located closer to the Little Elk Creek on Route 273. (CE-72) The expansive view of the Little Elk Valley is an obvious incentive for the construction of a house on this site.
