

CH-166
Idaho
La Plata
Private

mid 19th century

This frame, two-story Victorian house was built by Judge Frederick Stone. While a member of Congress, Judge Stone visited the Idaho Territory. He was so impressed that he named his home and farm Idaho, which means in an Indian language, "Light on the Hill."