

CH-204
Lower Cedar Point
Morgantown
Private

18th century

George Washington mentions in his diary a fishing excursion here in 1781. During the Victorian era, Lower Cedar Point was popular as a resort area and is still maintained for camping and picnicking during the summer months, although most of the Victorian era park structures have been demolished.