

CH-212
Old House on Boarman's Manor
Bryantown
Private

Circa 1810 (altered)

This small one-story frame house, of a traditional Southern Maryland design, has as its only remaining original feature a pair of external chimneys at each end. The left chimney base of the east end is of fieldstone construction up to the tapered weatherings. This house was extensively altered circa 1910.