DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The YOUNG HOUSE appears, by window and door placement, to be a two part house and if so ~~the~~ each of the two portions (by a short exterior observation) date closely in ~~years~~ dates of construction. Overall the window and door arrangement is: W. D. W. W. W. D. W. from the SW corner first level south elevation. At the second level south elevation are five windows. Of the first level windows previously mentioned all are 6/6 sash ~~with~~ while those of the second level are 2/2 sash.

To the south (front) elevation is a one storey shed roofed farm porch with the SW portion supported by unadorned posts and that section to the SE a continuation of posts and rails.

There is no moulding or notable boxing of the ~~"A" / # / roof~~ eaves the only outstanding characteristic feature being in the form of solid exterior chimneys at each end of the "A" plan roof.

Near the top of the east chimney is an inscribed stone bearing the barely legible initials J. D. (or I. D.) and a date beginning with 17--.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

This is perhaps one of the most important of the larger rural dwellings in this particular county, in that aside from a good basic block, designed with simplicity, and the craftsmanship evident in the well laid and well dressed stone walls, the house possesses ^{the} most interesting exterior chimneys. These chimneys lend an awareness of total solidity to the overall composition and seem to accent the picturesqueness of the house and its environment.
