1328 OLD WESTMINSTER PIKE

Himmel-Crowl Log House

mid-19th century

Westminster vicinity

private

Within the past five years, aluminum siding was added to this house which previously has a board-and-batten exterior. With the board and batten exterior, this house was an excellent example of a mid-nineteenth century log house that had been remodeled with Victorian period ornamentation. The house still retains its front porch with turned posts and unique brackets.
