This is a simple colonial styled building built of stone. It is 2-1/2 stories in height. The stone is painted gray on the front but on the sides it is exposed. On the first floor are two metal and glass storefronts separated by a doorway with a segmental arch over it. The door itself is modern.

The second floor has five wood double hung windows. These have 6/6 sash and wood sills. The structure has a typical colonial wood cornice with very simple console modillions.

The roof is gable with the ridge paralleling Market Street. At either end of the building is brick chimneys.
