DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a brick detached 2-1/2 story Federal style mansion, three large bays wide and three bays in depth with a wide "T" shaped, two story brick wing two bays wide and six bays in depth with an enclosed gallery around three sides of the wing. There is a small rear extension. All brickwork is in unpainted common bond. The front entranceway occupies the center bay with a large plain Federal shape, three part doorway consisting of a paneled door, sidelights over panels separated by Doric pilasters, and headed by an eight pane overlight. This leads to a large oak paneled vestibule. A wide covered veranda with Doric columns extends across the front and left side of the front section. All windows are of 6/6 sash with tall segmental jack arches on the front and two row header segmental arches on the wing. There is a 6/6 JIB window-door on the left side of the wing. Front section shutters are louvered and the wing has paneled shutters. The attic is very well lighted by three pedimented dormer windows with 6/6 sash and fluted pilasters on the front. On the rear are two similar dormers and a wide brick dormer section in the center with two 6/6 sash windows. Also, there is a three part Federal style doorway on the left side of the wing similar to that on the front. The front section has a rather steep slope "A" frame roof of slate with wide enclosed chimneys with corbelled heads rising on either end. The wing has a rather flat roof. A triple flue chimney rises from the wing. The front roofline has a simple boxed cornice. The building rests on a rather high foundation. To the rear is a small landscaped garden area.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The site of this house had been owned by the Catholic church for many years and sold around the above date. This house has a Federal shape and character with many Federal features but has a late Victorian covered porch on the front and left side. It is very well maintained and blends well with other homes of downtown Frederick.
