DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This frame farmhouse is situated on a bank in a hilly, semi-wooded area off Twin Churches Road, approximately 1 mile southeast of New Germany Road. The two story, four bay by one bay gable roof structure faces southeast. A single story, four bay shed addition extends across the facade. A four bay by two bay shed addition, resting on a cinderblock foundation is located at the rear northwest elevation. It appears to be two stories from the rear due to the bank on which the house rests. The house is entered from the facade at the shed addition.

An exterior cinderblock chimney is located at the southwest elevation. A variety of windows light the house including two over two, six over six and modern one over one sash. The house rests on a poured concrete foundation. Asphalt shingles cover the house and the roof.

Numerous outbuildings appear including a barn with a log silo, a log building presently used as a garage, two chicken houses and a shed.
