John Williams House
Ellicott City
Private

circa 1838

This building faces south on the north side of Main Street. Dating from circa 1838 and a part of the West Ilchester tract of land of the Ellicotts, the John Williams House now holds the law offices of Pairo-Pairo.

It is a three bay wide, three story high frame building with its third gabled roof (running east-west) holding a central chimney. Two stone steps in the west bay lead to a recessed rectangular entrance which is flanked by square wooden posts.

The ground floor has been altered to provide a quaterpartite window, each component holding a one light rectangular window surmounted by a one light transom. Otherwise fenestration is rectangular, double-hung holding one-over-one lights, vertically aligned and proportionally scaled.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

John Williams' house is a three bay wide, three story high, attached framed, gabled roof (running east-west) structure. Two store steps lead to the rectangular doorway which is inset into the west bay and leads up the stairs to law offices on the second and third floors. Two square pillars flank the recessed entrance. A simple wooden cornice runs along the top of the ground floor which is inset into the solid granite rock of the north side of Main Street, creating a narrow ground or first floor and a deeper second and third floor.

The first floor windows have been remodeled and form a quatre-partite window, each section of which is a one light window surmounted by a one light transom. The three second and third floor windows are rectangular, double-hung with one-over-one lights, proportionally scaled and vertically aligned. They are decorated with wooden sills and shutters. The present gabled roof is the third roof. Each of the others were seen in restoration work. A simple wooden cornice adorns the roof line. A brick chimney is located in the center of the roofline.

The interior has been completely renovated for the use of law offices. The ground floor is rented as a small shop. The third floor north windows do retain many of their original six-over-six lights. This floor also features original open bible and cross paneled doors.

In excellent condition, the alterations made on the ground floor do not compete with the fenestration above but blend in rather nicely providing greater visibility to the ground floor shop.

SPECIFIC DATES circa 1838

BUILDER/ARCHITECT

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This lot is located on the north side of Main Street, an area which was originally referred to as West Ilchester by the Ellicotts.

On April 26, 1838 Mr. John Williams conveyed this land "together with all and singular the buildings and improvements thereon made, lanes, alleys, ways, waters, privileges, easements, emoluments, and advantages to the said lot or ground " to Andrew McLaughlin. This was subject to a yearly rent of $36.00 on the first day of June and December. (Ann Arundel County-WS6 22-S84)

On the 25 June, 1847 Andrew and Frances Ann McLaughlin conveyed the land to Christopher Harris "with the buildings and improvements . . . ground . . . and premises." (Howard County WHW 10-277)

Other owners of the house were Henry and Ada Wooten who conveyed the building to James Heavey for $600 on November 29, 1890 (JHO 56-593).

On February 21, 1925 James Heavey granted and conveyed the property to his three daughters, Mary, Eleanor and Anita (HBN 122-343) who on September 6, 1935 sold the property to Benjamin Mellor and Milton J. Fitzsimmons. (BM Jr. 152-399). On June 2, 1941 Mr. Mellor conveyed the land to Milton Fitzsimmons (BM Jr. 170-347).

On March 3, 1949 Milton Fitzsimmons conveyed the land to Carroll F. Fitzsimmons and the Mercantile Trust Company of Baltimore. (MWB 208-595)

On May 22, 1959 the property was conveyed to Milton J. Fitzsimmons by Carroll F. Fitzsimmons and the Mercantile-Safe Deposit and Trust Company. (299-351)

On the 15 of December, 1971 Alice Keech and Robert F. Fitzsimmons conveyed three lots, Ho-97, and Ho-99 to Olin-Pairo Incorporated.

Originally used as a residence, it presently serves a commercial business use with law offices on the second and third floors and a commercial shop on the ground floor.

Architecturally it is noteworthy as an example of an early frame dwelling unit in Ellicott City. Its scale fits into the scale of its neighbors and presents a link to the pleasant streetscape on the north side
