DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The house is a 2-1/2 story red brick house with a rear brick wing. The house has a five bay main (east) facade with a one story porch across the three center bays. The doorway has a seven light transom and three light sidelights separated from the door by pilasters. Over the entire doorway, as well as the windows, are lintels with a chainlink motif. The porch is bracketed and has a dentil course below the boxed cornice. The main cornice consists of four courses of brick; the lowest has dentil-like projecting headers; the second is projecting stretchers; the third is projecting headers, and the top a row of stretchers.

The end walls have flush gable chimneys with three-course caps. The north end wall has a window on each floor centered under the stack. The south end wall is blank except for an attic window.

The rear wing, continuously bonded with the front block, has a chimney on the west end, a gallery at the second floor level on the south side, and a small porch on the north side. The ballusters for the gallery are cut in an elaborate pattern; the porch is bracketed and has pendants below the frieze. There is also a porch on the west end with shed roof.

The house sits on a stone foundation, although the porches have separate brick foundations. The roof is slate.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The rear and side facades have simpler lintels, with caps and frieze but no elaboration. There are several out-buildings on the farm. Behind the house is a log smokehouse. To the south are several barns and farm buildings. The bank-barn is supposed to be older than the house.
