STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Though Tilghman Lee described this house as being two stories, it was probably only one and a half since there was only one room down and one up. This was a size similar to earlier log houses. The Mary Davis house (which is frame) in the Jonesville community which has been surveyed, exemplifies this type.

No land records were found that gave the history of this house. The parcel of land, CR 43-P.562, has no liber/folio in the tax assessment lists. James Beckwith was not listed as a grantee in the index of grantees in the land records office in the courthouse. Nor was there a Beckwith listed as grantee from the Webb family (the grantors to the Black landowners in Sugarland), except for Katie Beckwith, wife of Tilghman Beckwith. Since Tilghman and his brother James were neighbors, according to Tilghman Lee, it is likely that the 4 acres purchased by Katie Beckwith were occupied by the families of the two brothers.

According to Lee, James Beckwith's wife was named "Mage", and they had one daughter named "Lottie". There is no James Beckwith in the 1870 or 1880 censuses whose family matches this description. BUT THERE WAS SUCH A FAMILY IN THE U.S. 1900 CENSUS. SEE ATTACHED PAGE.
